DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to my loving parents, Walter Osgood Stubbs 1886-1948 and Iva Lyle Randall 1886-1955, who enjoyed forty-two years of marriage; my sisters Arlene Britton and Marion Stevens; and my only brother Alan Howard Stubbs.

I am grateful for the interest and encouragement of my sisters and brother during my years of research. The heritage received from our parents (whose ancestry reaches back to the settlers of New England in the early 1600s) bore the stamp of our Christian ancestors.

"Teach a child how he should live, and he will remember it all his life." (Proverbs 22:5—Good News Bible 1976 ed.)

"Children, obey your parents; this is the right thing to do because God has placed them in authority over you." (Ephesians 6:12—The Living Bible 1972 ed.)

"Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instructions of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4—Revised Standard Version of the Bible 1952 ed.)

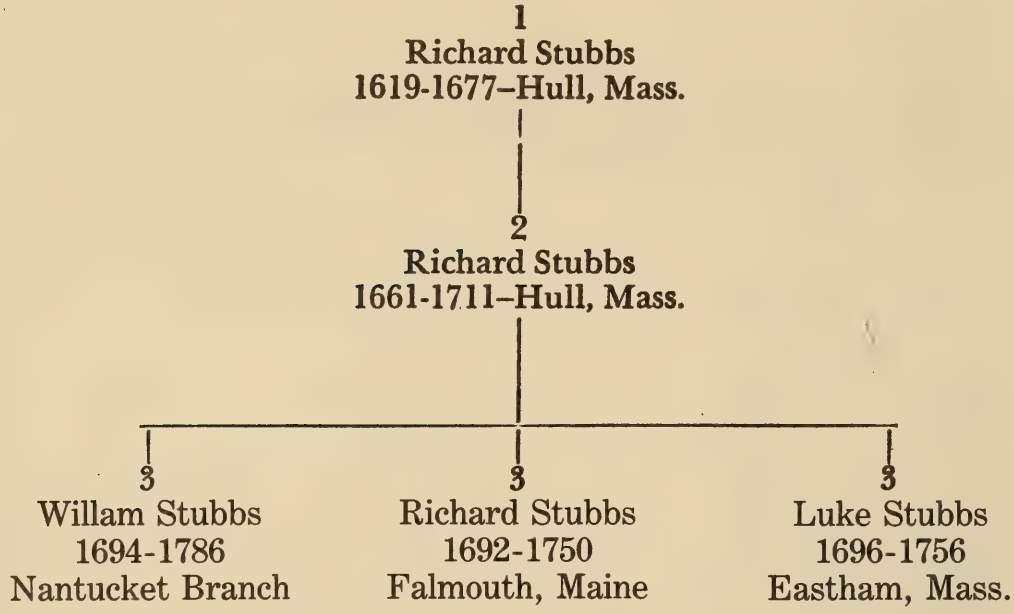
Descendants of Richard Stubbs; the first three generations.
(Male heads of families).



FOREWORD

In 1962 I began the search for my New England forebears. After one year, I had found published genealogies of six of my eight great-grandparents traced back to the early 1600s. Also, I found that the Stubbs name was rare in New England and that Richard Stubbs of Hull, Mass. (1642) was the ancestor of all Stubbses in New England for two hundred years until the mid 1800s.

From the first I collected every Stubbs record I found and before long decided to gather as many of Richard's descendants as possible. I travelled to New England every year from 1965 on and spent three months researching original records in State, County and Town Archives. I retained local researchers to augment my efforts in order to be able to continue my compilations during the winter months.

I visited Stubbs families and graveyards. I even visited the place on Oak Point on the Penobscot River in Winterport, Maine where my grandfather was born in 1858, in the house built by his great-grandfather in the early 1790s. A feeling of being a part of the history of our family possessed me. The thrill of kinship engendered by hearing from so many cousins from Maine to Hawaii, meeting with them in my home and in theirs has been the compensation for my labors.

This is the first book ever published about the descendants of Richard Stubbs. It has taken 341 years for someone to accomplish the task. Some few lines of descent from Richard can be found in "Maine Families" by George Little (4 Vols.), the "Tower Family" by Charlemagne Tower and the Desc. of Nicholas Lobdell, by Julia H. Lobdell, which sets forth the lineage of Roscoe Stubbs of Portland, Maine, and some incomplete records on the descendants of Richard Stubbs of Falmouth, Maine (1692-1750) appearing in "Old Times North Yarmouth" by Col. Augustus Corliss.

The age of the computer arrived after my work was finished. Other researchers will have an easier task now and in the future.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME STUBBS

The name Stubbs first appeared in England in Yorkshire. There is a small village of that name near Leeds. Before last names were used, men were called by their occupations or by some distinguishing area where they lived, such as John by the River, which later became John River, or John the Baker, which became John Baker as the population grew and last names became important for the general population (by the 1300s). They then took the names of trees, colors, animals, birds and so on. The many books listing the origins of names attributes the name Stubbs to tree stumps or stubs, thus the man who lived by the tree stumps. The earliest Stubbses in the records were Henry and Richard de Stubbes of Yorkshire in 1273.

The great English Bishop of Chester and Oxford and historian, Bishop William Stubbs (1825-1901), compiled the descendants of his ancestor William Stubbs of Yorkshire noted in 1379. His work was published by the Yorkshire Archaelogical Society in 1914. If the index had included Joshua Stubbs (a rare first name in the Stubbs family) who was in the Boston, Mass. area at the same time as Richard (and a probable brother or cousin), it might have been possible to have connected Richard's lineage to the English family. By the 1500s the families of Stubbs had spread to all the counties surrounding Yorkshire, and the countless numbers of Parish Registers of this time, some seen by the compiler, and others researched for her, make formidable the task of finding the ancestry of Richard Stubbs of Hull, Mass. The ship on which he came to the colonies is not known for he came at the time of the impending civil war in England. There are no depositions made in Suffolk County (Mass.) Archives, to give us any indication of where he came from or his actual age. In 1665 there was a bubonic plague in England which could have killed his relatives and there were many other possible reasons why no wills naming him were recorded in the Mass. Archives. Perhaps some day his birth place will be found.

There have been famous persons of this name in England, such as George Stubbs (1724-1806), the artist, and John Stubbs (1543?-1591) the lawyer whose booklet concerning the possible marriage of Queen Elizabeth I to the Catholic Duke of Anjou, so angered her she ordered his right hand be cut off, and he loyally lifted his left hand and said, "God save the Queen."

This book records all of Richard's descendants found by the compiler. Those who left New England in the late 1700s and in the 1800s to go west are still being sought, and in the past year more records came in from their descendants. The publishing of this book should help many more to establish their lineage back to the 1600s.

Lack of knowledge of Richard Stubbs's English ancestry leaves us without claim to a coat-of-arms. There is no law in America against the use of another's arms, but in Great Britain one can be sued for doing so. Richard Stubbs of the third generation (1692-1750) of Falmouth, Maine used a seal on his will of a double headed eagle in profile, the heads looking in opposite directions. Its significance, if any, is not known.

Hull, Mass., was probably named for Hull, Yorkshire, England and it is possible some of the settlers, including Richard Stubbs, were from there, since they had the name of the town Nantasket changed to Hull, Mass.

LOCATION OF STUBBS NAME IN ENGLAND (1890) BY GUPPY

County, numbers for every 10,000 persons.
Cheshire, 30 Stubbs.
Hampshire, 20 Stubbs.
Lincolnshire, 15 Stubbs.
Staffordshire, 40 Stubbs.
Yorkshire, and North and East Ridings, 15 Stubbs.

It is interesting to note most of the Stubbs families lived in Staffordshire and Cheshire, whereas among the fewest were those in Yorkshire, the original home.

In America, the greatest number of Richard Stubbs's descendants still live in Maine and Mass.

STUBBS PLACE NAMES IN AMERICA

HOW TO USE THE BOOK

The numbering system.

Each head of family is given a number, starting with Richard Stubbs (1619-1677) #1. His only son, also Richard, is #2. The latter's three sons, in chronological order of birth, are given consecutive numbers as follows: Richard #3, William #4, Luke #5. In turn, each of their sons is given a consecutive number, and so on.

Since each descendant retains the number he received as a child in his father's family, by working backward from any named individual who is an ancestor, one comes to the original ancestor, Richard Stubbs of Hull, Mass.

Most descendants alive today, named in this volume, are of the 10th generation, although there are some who are up to the 13th generation.

An example of one line of descent (actual), Bernard Clair Stubbs (1920-to-date), follows. Placing the numbers as demonstrated here, each generation can be written down, with page number, making easy reference.

#1. Richard Stubbs 1619-1677.
#2. Richard Stubbs 1661-1711 (ancestor of all Stubbs in New England to 1840).
#3. Richard Stubbs (his first son) 1692-1750 moved to Falmouth, Maine.
#6. Richard Stubbs 1717-1785 of N. Yarmouth, Maine.
#15. Samuel Stubbs 1750-1823 died Leeds, Maine (m. 2nd 1805 Ruth Bates).
#43. Henry Sewell 1809-1885 died Sherman, Maine.
#98. Frederick A. Stubbs 1840-1904, died Sherman, Maine.
#181. Frederick A. Stubbs 1865-1930 died Sherman, Maine.
#263. Bernard Clair Stubbs 1894-1967 died Sherman, Maine.
#332. Bernard Clair Stubbs 1920- living 1983 Naugatuck Ct. (tenth generation).

This book is so arranged that the children of each descendant's brother are given numbers in consecutive order thus bringing each family of each generation together and cousin relationships into focus.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

No genealogy is ever complete or without errors. This work has been gathered over the last twenty-one years from original records, both vital, court, and many other sources, such as Bibles, gravestones, city directories, censuses, pension records and all other records available to a researcher.

I wish to thank those who sent me their personal records and information about relatives. Some of my biographical material came from obituaries, census records (for occupation) and many news clips of marriages, births and other items of interest, sent me from interested persons. My deepest appreciation goes to my researchers who kept me busy during Winter months when I could not do personal research. To Mrs. Ethel (Colby) Conant, of Augusta, Maine (now deceased) who gathered the vital records of Maine; to Mrs. Betty (Hartshorn) Phillips, Attlboro, Mass., for the Mass. vital records from 1842, and the Boston City Directories, checked from 1789 to the 1900s; to Martha (Bagley) Anderson, Derry, N.H. for the New Hampshire vital records. I researched the Vermont and Connecticut Archives for the few records in those States, and all sixteen county court house records in Maine for deeds and probate records, and several counties in Mass., where the Stubbs family lived. To Mrs. Cleo (Goff) Wilkens, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Mrs. Dorothy (Macklin) Mercy, Falls Church, Virginia who researched all these years the census records from 1800-1880. To the many town clerks who were gracious and helpful, and to the many descendants who sent in records of their families.

This book has been a labor of love by a widow who rediscovered her fascination (engendered by family stories when she was a child) with her family history when she joined the DAR in 1962, on her aunt's papers, naming an ancestor on her father's side, she had never heard about. Only those who have spent the years, labor, and money gathering a family genealogy can know what this work means to me. I can only say, my father would have been so happy to have known his ancestry back to the 1600's, "from the brothers who went to Maine from Cape Cod" . . . a tradition handed down in our family, which proved to be correct. Samuel Stubbs (1725-1797) and his brother James Stubbs (1735-1794) born in Eastham, Mass., now the section set off as Wellfleet (1760) were in Bucksport, Maine in the 1790 census.

History comes alive when one knows one's ancestry and it's connection to the settling of this great country.

Finally, I am grateful to my brother-in-law Russell Eugene Stevens for his great help in getting this manuscript ready for the publisher. To J.J.A. and William May Stubbs, grateful thanks for their generous gifts toward the publishing of this book.

To Dick Johnston, Vice-President of E. O. Painter Printers, I extend my utmost gratitude for his patience and help with all the intracasies of publishing—of which I was completely ignorant—when I took my manuscript to him. I could never have imagined what he and his staff were to accomplish. My work has been greatly enhanced by their dedication to producing for me the best book possible.

I accept responsibility for any errors.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

Richard[1] Stubbs was born in England about 1619, if he was of age in 1642 when he became a "Planter" of Nantasket, Mass. He was probably married (perhaps in England before emigrating) though there is no record of a first wife. Most men who became "Planters" were married, and a minimum age of twenty-three in 1642 would seem appropriate. He died in Hull, Mass., between 22 May 1677 when he signed his will, and 2 June 1677, when it was filed at Suffolk Co. Probate #895. He married, probably as his second wife 3 Mar. 1658/9 in Boston by Humphrey Atherton, Esq., Margaret Reade, b. about 1636, Weymouth, Mass., death date not known, dau. of William Reade and Susannah (Hayme) Reade. The History of Weymouth, Mass. Vol. IV pp. 565, 566, states William Reade, a tailor, came from Batcomb, Co. Somerset, England with the Rev. Joseph Hull Company, sailing from Weymouth, England. He had married in Gillingham, Co. Dorset, 12 Oct. 1629, Susannah Hayme, dau. of Edward and Joanna Hayme, of Gillingham. In May 1647 William and Susannah Reade, were admitted to the First Church of Boston, "upon letters of dismission from the church in Weymouth." Susannah Reade died in Boston, Mass., 12 Oct. 1653, aged about 47. William Reade m. (2) 20 Mar. 1654, Boston, Ruth Crook. They lived on Crooked Lane (Devonshire St.) in Boston from 1654 to 1672, when they removed to New London, Ct. William died there before 7 June 1679. Their son, Hezekiah Reade made choice of Josiah and John Reade, his elder brothers to be his guardian, at New London, 13 June 1679. Ruth m. 7 June 1681—Percy. This information is given for descendants, for according to other printed sources Margaret Reade was said to be dau. of Capt. William Reade, who was lost on his way back (1667) from Ireland. The Binney Collection, and Savage "N.E. Families" state the above. Their apparent source was found by me in Suffolk Co. Probate Vol. 5 p. 70, when the inventory of William Reade, late of Boston, dec'd was taken 23 Sept. 1667:ibid:p. 51 the inventory of Patrick Cahoon and Gowen Moore, Scotsmen, dec'd who were in the ketch "William and Mary" with William Reade, Commander, also dec'd. was delivered up to Thomas Dare by Roger Edward who was mate of said ketch 21-4-1667. Richard Stubbs m. (3) Elizabeth, who was his widow. At the same time Richard Stubbs appeared in the Boston area, probably before the Winter of 1641, there was another Stubbs there named Joshua who married Abigail Benjamin, dau. of Mr. John Benjamin and his wife Abigail Eddy (see Eddy Gen.) Mr. Benjamin was a man of wealth, with mansion and fine furniture in Watertown. Joshua and Abigail had three children: Samuel Stubbs b. 1641 (according to James Savage's Gen. Dict. of N.E. Families), or 1646 (according to Pope's Pioneers of Mass.), Mary Stubbs who m. 24 Mar. 1674/5 John Traine, and Elizabeth Stubbs who m. James Stimson. Joshua removed from Watertown to Charleston in 1654 and died soon after. There are no further records of his son Samuel Stubbs and all Stubbs as found in the records through to, and including, the 1790 census in N.E. are Richard Stubbs's descendants. He seems to have been the ancestor of all Stubbses for about two-hundred years. A John Stubbs b. 1790 Ireland, in the 1830-1850 census in Maine was one of two other Stubbs, and the disposition of his estate indicates he only had daughters who lived. A Capt. William Stubbs b. Eng. was in Boston briefly in 1830. Richard and Joshua Stubbs could have been brothers or cousins and this was kept in mind when the English Parish registers were checked, also when the Lancashire wills were checked from 1619-1679. A tradition in only one family gave Lancashire as the birthplace of Richard Stubbs, but traditions are known to be wrong when they are of the fifth or sixth generation away from the original ancestor. Perhaps in some future time Richard Stubbs's antecedents will be found. For now, the compiler must publish without this knowledge. In collecting the Stubbs records, the compiler found many came to Mass. from England, Ireland and France by 1850 and she has these records she had originally hoped to include in this book. However, with the large number of Richard's descendants and the resulting larger book than she had envisioned, she reluctantly decided not to include these records. The compiler will give her records to the New England Historic Genealogical Society library in Boston, Mass., so they will be available to interested persons. She has had correspondence with Roger Avery Stubbs, Long Lake, Minn., who has compiled the descendants of Thomas Stubbs 1693-1764, a Quaker, of Penn., and with many descendants of John Stubbs of Cappahosic, Gloucester Co. Virginia, who was first in the records there in 1671. Richard, John and Thomas Stubbs were the progenitors of the great Colonial families of Stubbs in America.

One last puzzling record in the settling of the estate of Capt. Thomas Willett, Marshfield, Mass., the inventory of the estate taken 21 Aug. 1674 lists many who were debtors to the estate. A John Stubbs owed in 1651 £2.3.4. It stated that old debtors could not be found (M.D. 33:37). This John Stubbs, who was apparently in Mass. a few years, could have returned to England or he could be the John Stubbs who first appeared in the records of Virginia in 1671. A John Stubbs at this early date suggests a possible relationship to Richard and Joshua Stubbs. He is not listed otherwise in any other record. Richard and Joshua were listed in Col. Charles Banks book, Topographical Dictionary of 2,885 English Emigrants to New England, 1620-1650, though the ship they came on is not known, nor the exact time of their arrival.

Inventory of the estate of Richard Stubbs of Hull, Mass, taken 2 June 1677 £ 404.8.6
Elizabeth Stubbs appeared before John Leverett, Esq., Gov. and Edward Tyng, Esq. 21 June 1677 and made oath that this is a just and true inventory of the estate of her late husband Richard Stubbs dec'd to her best knowledge and that when she knows of more she will discover it and cause it to hereto added.

Isaac Addington, Clerk

THE DESCENDANTS OF RICHARD STUBBS, 1619-1677 OF HULL, MASS. COMPILED FROM 1962 TO 1983

FIRST GENERATION

1. Richard[1] Stubbs, from all evidence, was active in town affairs, signing a petition in 1658 concerning the town line between Hingham and Hull; was chosen "Townsman" (or selectman, in our terms), one of five to handle the affairs of the town in 1662, 1670, 1671; was warden for the Beacon light in 1673; surveyed land with Thomas Collier; signed another petition 3 Mar. 1675; was called "Goodman" Stubbs in the inventory of Martin Stebbins estate the status below Mr., a title of distinction; he signed his name in a 1658 petition with a clear strong hand; he made a will to provide for his family; he was owed more money than he owed, showing he was a prudent man in husbanding his resources. The Minister at Hull, during Richard's life was Zachariah Whitman. No records of baptisms or deaths of that early date have been found. It is interesting to note the compiler found that all persons named Stubbs who were Richard's descendants wrote their names on all deeds, wills and petitions. The only record of making a "mark" was in Richard's will in 1677, that was due to his being very ill and weak. The evidence of reading and writing from the first Richard throughout the years indicates the influence he had on future generations. His grandson Richard Stubbs whose will is extant, has on his seal a double headed eagle. This seal was not on Richard Stubbs Jr's will. It does show Richard of the third generation was interested in seals, and had one made apparently of fine quality. A gold seal is mentioned in the will of his descendant Frederick A. Stubbs a great-great-grandson (see #98)

Children, b. Hull, Mass. (First, third and fourth from the Binney Collection Mss., N.E. Hist. Gen. Soc., Boston, Mass. otherwise quoted as Binney).

2. i. Richard,[2] b. 6 Dec. 1661 (Binney).
   ii. William,[2] d. unm. bef. 9 Feb. 1696/7, when his brother sold two of the ten Commons owned by their father. William was on an expedition to Quebec in 1690, and left his "Canada Rights" to his nephew Richard[3], b. 1692, the lands mentioned in the agreement of the heirs of said Richard in 1750, Falmouth, Maine (York Co. Probate, cited later). William had not been known by any other researcher.

iii. Mercy[2] (Binney), n.f.r. (Was she the wife of John Binney?) She was poss. of age before 1677, when John had a wife, Mercy. The several deed-mortgages by their son John Binney to Rebecca Stubbs wife of Richard, indicate a possible relationship. This Binney family ended up with much of the Stubbs land in later years. The Binney Gen. (1886) gives no clue as to John Binney's wife. If Mercy was ae. 20 in 1677, she would have been the right age to be his wife and m. before her father d.

iv. Margaret[2] (Binney), d. 25 Feb. 1709/10, Hull, Mass. m. Luke Squire, Jr., of Hull, d. bef. 1709, a fence viewer, 1680, townsman, 1684, his land bounded 14 Dec. 1682, by Thomas Collier, Mordicai Lincoln, and Benjamin and Beatrix Bosworth (Suffolk Deeds Liber XIV 1906, #60.) Luke Sr. was granted town lands in Feb. 1667. Margaret and her sister Mercy, must have married before 1677, when her father's inventory of estate mentions only "sons" beds. Mercy and Margaret are recorded without references by Binney.

Two sons are known from records. Luke[3] Stubbs, 'son of Richard,[2] is by tradition said to have been named for Margaret's husband. No known ch. Since Richard seems to have all his father's lands, his sisters probably died childless.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Richard[2] Stubbs (Richard[1]) b. 6 Dec. 1661, Hull, Mass. (Binney), d. 5 Mar. 1710/11, same, m. c. 1690, Rebecca Lobdell, b. c. 1670, Hull, d. same, 6 Aug. 1743, dau. of Isaac and Martha (Ward) Lobdell. She m. (2) John Cox . . . possibly the John Cox by deposition born c. 1658 (Gen. Dict. Maine and N.H., Libby, Noyes, Davis, p. 167) who m. (1) c. 1680 Susannah Pope, of Dorchester, Mass., (who was aunt of Dr. Ralph Pope, Rebecca (Lobdell) Stubbs's son-in-law), m. (2) Christian Milliken, who d. in Dorchester, and in 1736, with wife Rebecca Cox, sold his house on Squantom Neck. He d. 23 Nov. 1742, in his 85th year. Rebecca m. John Cox between 15 Feb. 1728/9 when she is called Rebecca Stubbs in a deed and 25 Mar. 1736 (Suffolk Co. deed 43:287) in the sale of lands to John Binney, by her dau. Rebecca, wife of Dr. Ralph Pope, when she is mentioned, "saving and excepting out of the sale the use and improvement of the premises to our mother Rebecca Coks (sic) during her life." All the lands of Richard Stubbs with the exception of William Stubbs's inheritance, were sold to John Binney. On 27 Feb. 1699/1700, the Proprietors of Brewster's Island met to draw lots for their lands in two divisions, Richard Stubbs received on the Great Island lots, 8, 9, 10, bounded with the middle line on the North, Lt. Gould on the West, the swamp on the South, and Benjamin Loring on the East (Mass. Archives Hull, T.R. pp. 94, 95.) On 9 Feb. 1696/7, the inhabitants of the Town of Hull, fenced common lands of 17 acres, the following sold to Israel Nicolls of Hingham, 16½ lotts of land in the uplands called "Further Hill" an upland lying on the Eastward side of their said stonewall fence. Zachariah Whitman (the Minister), Robert Gould, John Loring, Benjamin Loring, Isaac Lobdell, Richard Stubbs, and John Bosworth, sold the above for £45.00.00. Richard Stubbs sold two lotts in this sale. (Suffolk Deeds 21:304).

Richard Stubbs, like his father, was active in town affairs. He was chosen "Townsman" in 1691, 1693, and 1696; fence-viewer in 1692, 1699, 1700, and 1701. He was commissioned to enlarge the meeting-house in 1704/5; was paid for the mending of Potter's Pier in 1700, for digging water for the town in 1703, and for transportation of rams in 1703. He is called "Yeoman" in the records and apparently also, was a carpenter.

The will of Richard Stubbs was signed 26 Nov. 1710 (Suffolk Co. Probate #3319 Vol. 17 p. 243) and probated 7 May 1711. Rebecca's father, Isaac Lobdell's will, (Suffolk Co. Prob. Vol. 20:412) signed 22 May 1710, probated 5 May 1718 gives "to daughter Rebecca Stubbs, the bed I lie on (his best bed), a green rug, chest of drawers, the silver beaker and £15.00.00."

Richard Stubbs was not of the highest class to come from England, but he apparently came from a class that married into families of wealth and some education from earliest records. Richard Jr. married a girl from a well-to-do family, and his children in turn, married into good stock. Richard Sr. and Richard Jr. died while their children were under age, and yet, their estates were large enough to provide for their families, though one could hope that if they had lived a son might have gone to Harvard. Both men left good estates for those times.

Suffolk Co. Prob. Rec. Vol. 17 p. 243 #3319
Will of Richard Stubbs of Hull, Mass. signed 26 Nov. 1710, prob. 7 May 1711
In the name and fear of God Amen—
I Richard Stubbs being weak in body but of perfect memory, and of disposing mind, and willing to set my house in order respecting my outward estate, do make this writing my last will and testament and hereby make void all former wills in manner and form as followeth vis; I firstly bequeath my Soul unto the hands of God that gave it, and my body after death to be decently interred and after all my lawful debts are duly and truly paid and funeral charges defreyed—Impr: I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Rebecca Stubbs the use and benefit and income of my whole estate during her widowhood under the name of Stubbs and till the youngest child becomes twenty years of age, and for the bringing up of the children until that time: And then my will is that an equal division of my whole estate be then made giving each child a like part that shall be surviving. Also, I doe constitute my beloved wife Executrix of this my last will, and doe give her all my movables, and One end of the house, and a Third of my estate for her life, and power to sell some piece or parcel of my lands, with the advise of her friends and Children to pay my lawful debts as may need require and to the full confirmation hereof I do put my hand and seal this 26 day of Nov. in the year of Our Lord God 1710

THIRD GENERATION

3. Richard[3] Stubbs, (Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 10 June 1692, Hull, Mass. (V.R.) d. between 7 Mar. 1749/50, Falmouth, Maine, when he made his will, and 25 Aug. 1750 when an agreement of his heirs was signed, (York Co. Maine Prob. #18287). He m. (1) 16 Feb. 1715/16, Hingham, Mass., Jael Tower, b. 26 Oct. 1691, dau. of Benjamin and Deborah (Garnet) Tower; she d. 3 May 1738, Falmouth, Maine (Binney p. 239). He m. (2) c. 1741 Mary (Collier) Spear, b. 7 Mar. 1703, Hull, Mass., death date unknown, dau. of Gershom and Elizabeth (Poole) Collier. She had m. (1) 12 Dec. 1720 Capt. Joseph Spear, who was lost at sea 1738 (See Reg. 18:159). Richard m. (3) 25 Oct. 1748, Falmouth, Maine, Rhoda (Chandler) Russell, widow of James Russell, and dau. of Capt. Joseph and Sarah (Abbott) Chandler. Rhoda m. (1) at Amesbury, Mass. 3 June 1729 James Russell. She was Richard's widow in 1750.

Richard was active in the affairs of the Town of Hull, before moving in 1730 to Falmouth, Maine, where he purchased land (York Co. Maine Deeds 13:193). He purchased a horse from R. Thornton 31 Mar. 1713/4 . . . took up stray horses 1719, and 1720, was fence viewer 1721, 1727, a Field-driver 1724/5. Jael Stubbs was in full communion in the church in Hull 29 Mar. 1730, so they did not move to Falmouth, Maine until after that date, though Richard purchased land in Falmouth 18 Oct. 1729 (York deeds 13:193, 194) and witnessed a deed there to Benjamin Wright, ibid., 13:479, 23 Oct. 1729. He purchased 103 acres in Falmouth adjoining the North Yarmouth line in 1733 (York deeds Vol. 20 p. 252) from Phineas Jones and mortgaged the same to him 20 Dec. 1734, for £ 28.00.00, with interest which he paid off 21 Jan. 1742.

His children Richard, Mary, Sarah, Hannah, Jael and Rebecca were bapt. at the church in Hull, 5 Apr. 1730 (Hull, Mass. Church rec., by S.E. Pond at N.E.H.G.Soc. Libr;mss.). His dau. Jael was dismissed from this church to North Yarmouth 18 Nov. 1744, having remained behind after her parents had moved (ibid.).

Richard was captured by the Indians at Falmouth, Maine (Reg. 69:263) (The following sent the compiler from Gilbert Merrell Titcomb, 1970).

In Aug. 1746, a short distance from his home, and a soldier with him named Clark was killed. During the fight, Mr. Stubbs shot the Indian Chief and wounded him, but was soon overpowered by superior numbers. The Indians took him to Quebec, where he was sold to the French and imprisoned. He was fifty-four years old at the time and suffering from a shoulder wound. The hardships of the long journey, which took from 26 Aug. to 5 Oct. over Indian trails, must have been very severe. Most of the information about him in Coleman's, 'New England Captives,' was taken from the diary or journal of a fellow-prisoner, Capt. William Pote, Jr., of Falmouth, Maine. His journal was smuggled out of the jail, hidden under a woman's dress. Years later, in 1890, it was found in Geneva, Switzerland, brought to this country and published. Quoting from the book by Coleman, New Casco (Falmouth) Maine, 26 Aug. 1746."

Pote says it was 5 Oct. when "came Mr. Richard Stubs who was taken By ye Indians at New Casco, and had his companion shot down by his side, and he wounded in ye shoulder, he discharged his piece and wounded an Indian in ye arm" Stubbs gave Capt. Pote news of his friends (in 1756 Stubbs's son Richard was the appraiser of the est. of Capt. Pote) Richard Stubbs was returned 16 Aug. 1747, after a year in captivity, on the ship, Vierge-De-Grace (a prisoner-exchange ship), arriving at Boston, Mass.

About three weeks after Mr. Stubbs was brought to the prison an Indian Chief came and demanded him; 'he told Mr. Stubbs that he had wounded him in the conflict, but as he had now recovered he came to let him know he freely forgave him, he then carried him before the Governor & Assembly in the Court where the discourse ran upon the two men who had escaped (Dunbar and Cloutman). The French officer said 'twas a monstrous piece of ingratitude in them or any prisoner to make their escape when they were so kindly used.' Mr. Stubbs answered that it was no new thing for prisoners, especially for those closely confined to make their escape . . . and that he knew of four French officers who were prisoners in New England and had the patrol of honour allowed them, yet they ran away with a Sloop out of the harbour & the prisoners who remained were not the worse treated . . . as we were treated. This small rapportie ended the dispute and he was remanded back to prison." "

Mass. Arch. 38A:134

21 Apr. 1747 Sgt. Trott, of New Casco, with volunteers returned, after having vainly tried to overtake hostile Indian Captors of the Foster family, and stayed overnight with Mr. Stubbs, Falmouth.

The following letter published in the Tower Gen. by Charlemagne Tower, 1891 was from Richard Stubbs, reported lost on a whaling voyage, (his father was dead, this was written apparently to his wife's parents).

9 June 1716

HONORED FATHER AND MOTHER,—I present these lines a token of my Respect and Deuty, hoping thaye will come to your view while in perfect health, for the which I Desire to Bles God thaye left me.

I suppose you have heard what was reported concerning my Being Drowned. But it has pleased God to deal Better with Me, which I desire forever to Bles God., for I was urged to go with them, and it is not in my power to give you any Reason I did not go, save of all Mity power of God In keeping me Back from Distruction.

Remember My Kind Love to all my Brothers and Sisters, and to all my friends. I have but Littel nuse to send you. We have but a small matter as yet, thare has bin no man Mortelly hurt uppon the voyage as I have heard of, the 3 bots stove and spyled (spoiled), one of which the harponeear and Bowman, with the stroke of the whale, dropt the bottom of the bot(boat), the other 4 tosed(tossed) into the are(air), and when thaye came to the water again it is reported thaye ware forty feet a part, and yet no man hurt. No more at present. I remain your deutifull child to Till Death.

(note: Jonathan's estate is included here for he was the one to inherit his father's estate, the "movables," which included books).

4. William[3] Stubbs, (Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 30 Mar. 1694, Hull, Mass., d. there bef. 3 June 1786, m. Nantucket Island, Mass., 31 Mar. 1716/17, Dinah Manning, b. c. 1699, d. Nantucket, 16 Jan. 1732, dau. of Dennis and Catherine (Innes) Manning of Nantucket. He m. (2) 21 Dec. 1732, Hannah (Gorham) Manning, widow of William Manning (Dinah's brother), and dau. of Shubael and Puella (Hussey) Gorham. She d. 16 Aug. 1751. No other marriage is found for him, though it is possible he did marry. The records of his children are incomplete, due to a scarcity of early records on his family. The records that are published in the 5 volumes of Nantucket Island Vital Records have a number of errors, stating certain persons had no children, because they moved away and none was recorded. Bibles and other records prove they did have families. It is possible that William is the father of Samuel Stubbs of Windham, Ct., John of Bolton, Conn., and William and Charles, of N.Y. Only one son remained on Nantucket. The Stubbses were sea faring men and may have migrated to N.Y. and Ct. as so many Nantucketers did. N.Y. had jurisdiction over Nantucket for years, and was near by sea. Since his first wives died leaving young children, it would be understandable that the children would leave home early to be apprenticed to learn a trade, becoming independent of the family at an early age. This family needs further research in Conn. and N.Y. William's father died when he, the next eldest child, was seventeen. He was the first in the family to leave Hull, going to Nantucket where he is variously called mariner or carpenter. His father-in-law deeded 1/4 acre lot to his dau. Dinah Stubbs, where William Stubbs house stood in the section of Nantucket called Sherburne, on 5 Nov. 1720. William was chosen a Juror 1 Oct. 1717, and 31 Mar. 1719. In 1731, he conveyed a 4/7th part of 2/3 part of half a house lot in Hull, still reserving the rest of the land his father left him in his will. William returned to Hull some time after the death of his second wife. He first appeared there in the records as witness to a deed dated 3 Feb. 1758 (Suffolk Co. Deed 95:38). On 24 June 1767, he was one of the persons of the town commissioned to, "Treat with the Rev. Samuel Veasey's dismissal from the Hull Church." His name appears last in a deed in 1771. He died intestate before 3 June 1786, when the inventory of his estate was presented to Suffolk Co. Probate, #18629. He was ill from 1771 through 1777, according to doctors' bills. Dying an old man sometime after 1777, perhaps as late as 1786, he left a small estate, which was used to pay his bills. Since he did not leave a will, we cannot be certain how many children he had. He had clung to his father's land, settled by his grandfather in 1642, and was the last Stubbs known to live there, after 144 years of habitation by Stubbs families.

His known children and possible children:

i. ? William,[4] b. c. 1717, mentioned in Goshen, Orange Co., N.Y., (Deed Vol. C p. 60) Samuel Clowes of Jamaica, L.I., N.Y. to William Stubbs, cordwainer (shoemaker) see "Reg." 69:189, under "Fitch." "A shoemaker in the 16th and 17th centuries was an artisan of greater skill and was more a man of affairs than in these days of machine made footware." Dennis Manning, father-in-law of William Stubbs of Nantucket was a cordwainer, and it could be, if this William is the son of William of Nantucket, that he learned the trade from his grand-father. The above deed dated 25 Apr. 1740, also, on a deed dated 1 Apr. 1741 William Stubbs witnessed with William Jackson, and Silas Leonard Joseph Sackett's deed. This William Stubbs was undoubtedly the father of William Stubbs, b. c. 1748 of Orange Co. U.Y., DAR lineage #257298. Jean (Coy) Bartholomew, Upland, Cal. (letters 1979-1983) a descendant. No wife found. This family given tentatively.

Child (known):

1. William,[5] b. c. 1748, d. (will 1820) m. Mary ( ). Their children (DAR Lineage #257298).
   a. William,[6] b. 25 Feb. 1772, d. bef. Apr. 1855, m. Nancy Williams, known children.

b. Samuel,[6] b. 27 Nov. 1774.
c. Mary,[6] b. 25 Sept. 1776.
d. David,[6] b. 22 Oct. 1778, m. Julia Mapes.
e. Joseph,[6] b. 6 Nov. 1780, d. Springfield, Ohio, m. Rebecca, known desc.
f. Sarah,[6], b. 18 Sept. 1782.
g. John,[6] b. 12 Aug. 1784, lived Williams Co., Ohio, m. Phoebe Miller, known desc. (Hist. Williams Co., Ohio).
h. Elizabeth,[6] b. 16 June 1786.
i. Israel,[6] b. 28 May 1788.

ii. Child,[4] d. 17 Mar. 1720, Nantucket.

7. iii. Benjamin,[4] b. c. 1720.

iv. Child,[4] d. Jan. 1732.

v. Rebecca,[4] b. 25 Nov. 1736, m. Nantucket, 20 Jan. 1758, Prince Haden, from the Isle of Wight. She d. 21 Dec. 1818, ae. 81-1-0, another rec. ae. 82.

vi. Ann,[4] b. c. 1740, m. 3 Dec. 1760 Hull, Mass. Elijah Pope.

vii. ? Samuel,[4] b. c. 1750, d. bef. 7 Dec. 1790, Windham, Conn., m. there, 16 Apr. 1774, Marion Cross. Conn. Probate Record (Conn. State Libr.) #3634 #5 p. 308, Samuel, having died intestate, Mr. Uriah Smith, was appointed guardian for his daughter Betsey Stubbs, 7 Dec. 1790. Samuel was in the Rev. War from Windham, in Capt. Ebenezer Moseley's Co. in a list of soldiers reported "sick" in 1775. He was listed as a recruit in the 7th Continental line formation 1777-1781, Heman Swift, Colonel, from Windham. Vol. VII p. 128 (1909) Conn. Hist. Soc., he was listed of Windham, in the 5th Brigade, Continental Service, in 1778. Manning Stubbs, of Nantucket, son of Benjamin, and grandson of William, was also listed in Conn., close by sea, to Nantucket, and therefore the possibility that this Samuel was a son of William by his second wife is considered in naming him in this work.

Child, born Windham, Conn.

i. Betsey,[5] b. 28 Jan. 1775, "aged about 16" when her guardian was appointed in 1790. n.f.r.

viii. ? Charles,[4] of Hempstead, L.I., N.Y. in 1790 census with wife and two daughters. He was in the Rev. War from N.Y., called a "Fifer." Not further researched. There were Stubbses in this area in 1850, possible desc. n.f.r.

ix. ? John,[4] of Bolton Ct. in Rev. War, not in 1790 cens. n.f.r.

An abstract of the several papers of administration of the estate of William Stubbs from Suffolk Co. Probate #18629. David Spear was appointed administrator.

Inventory taken 3 June 1786, describes lands in Hull, at Point Aderton, Petix Island, Whitehead, a place called "Stubbs Island," and a piece of marshland in Nantucket. Costs of administration. Appraisers were Daniel Souther, Thomas Jones and Robert Gould. Due David Spear for bills incurred from 28 Nov. 1770 to 27 Dec. 1777, for various items. On 17 Oct. 1786, David Spear presented the inventory. Bills were presented through August 1789, papers included the sale of William's lands to pay these and all bills, David Spear being the outstanding creditor. The lands were sold to Spencer Binney.

From 28 Nov. 1770 to 27 Dec. 1777, William Stubbs made many purchases and the debts listed in the settling of his estate included sugar, salt, cider, tea, flour, boards, joists, timber, shingles, nails, (he owed Thomas Collier for building a barn), clapboards, hogs, corn, cash, rice, meal, rye, beef, and for Dr. Winship services £15.00.00. A carpenter's bill was £11.00.00, so we can see he must have been ill a long time to have incurred such a large debt to Dr. Winship.

5. Luke[3] Stubbs, (Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 5 July 1696, Hull, Mass., alive 1756 (M.D. 13-209), m. by John Doane, Esq. 11 Apr. 1723, Eastham, Mass., Mary Newcomb, b. c. 1704, (bpt. 2/6/1717, Truro, Mass.) d. not known, dau. of Thomas and Elizabeth (Cook) Newcomb (Newcomb Gen.). There is no other record for a marr. of Luke, nor a widow Mary Stubbs, so it is assumed she is the mother of all his children. Through her mother all descendants descend from Stephen Hopkins of the "Mayflower." Luke Stubbs was one of three brothers, the only Stubbs family in N.E., and the only Stubbs to settle in Eastham on Cape Cod, and no doubt the father of all who appear in Eastham, or who moved with their brothers to another place. Luke was a housewright, as we find from Suffolk Co. deed Vol. 39, p. 270, "Luke Stubbs, housewright, of Eastham, Barnstable Co., to Richard Stubbs all right and title both real and personal that my honored father Richard Stubbs, late of Hull, dec'd died seized of . . . all my portion . . . which was given me in his last will and testament." Signed 26 Mar. 1726, wit. Samuel Thaxter Sr. & Jr. and John Ballentine, Reg. Luke lived in the section, later set off as Wellfleet, where some of his descendants, Mary (Stubbs) Magenau and her sister, Carolyn Stubbs, live today (1983). He signed his name and could write, as could all his siblings, and his father and grandfather before him.

Children, not in order (A Bible needed for this family):

8. i. Samuel,[4] b. 25 July 1725, Eastham, Mass.
   ii. Mary,[4] b. 27 Oct. 1728, recorded at Hull, Mass., n.f.r.
   iii. Simeon,[4] b. say 1730, killed in Rev. War (Soldiers and Sailors of the Rev. War, 15:212), Simeon Stubbs, Capt. John Wiley's Co. list of men belonging to Col. Michael Jackson's Regt., Line, on a list returned probably 1779, as killed.
   iv. Isaac,[4] b. say 1732, placed in this family for he was in Major Treat's Day Book, of Bucksport where his brothers James, Samuel and Benjamin lived. He was in the Rev. War at Sewell's Point, N.H., then called of Brentwood, N.H. (N.H. Rev. War Rolls, Vol. 2, p. 748) 26 Sept. 1775. He was in Capt. Sheman's Co., Col. Gerrish's Regt. dated Cambridge Mass. 24 June 1775 and Pvt. 11 June 1775-26 Dec. 1775.

v. Benjamin,[4] b. c. 1734, in Rev. War from N.H., same as Isaac N.H. Rev. War Rolls, dated 9 Nov. 1775. He was also in Major Treat's Day book, of Bucksport, Maine. Placed here as his uncle Richard had no son Benjamin, and his uncle William's son, Benjamin is accounted for. n.f.r.

9. vi. James,[4] b. c. 1735.

10. vii. Thomas,[4] b. say 1737 (named for Mary's father).

viii. Susanna,[4] b. say 1738, m. 29 Dec. 1757, Eastham, Mass. by Rev. Isaiah Lewis, Simeon Smith. Ancestors of Dr. Vannevar Bush.

ix. Rebecca,[4] (named for Luke's mother b. say 1740, d. 10-5-1825, m. 3 Apr. 1760, Levi Wiley of Eastham.

x. Elizabeth,[4] (named for Mary's mother), b. say 1742, m. 23 Apr. 1765, Eastham, Mass., David Howes.

11. xi. John,[4] b. say 1743/4.

xii. Joseph Cook,[4] b. say 1748, placed here since the name Cook is only in the ancestry of this Stubbs line. He was in the Rev. War from Stonington, Conn. and N.Y. (New York Hist. Soc. Muster Rolls, p. 50). Joseph Cook Stubbs in Conn. line 1st. Regt. Enlisted 15 July 1780. Vol. XII Coll. of Conn. Hist. Soc., p. 344, Joseph Cook Stubbs, discharged 10 Dec. 1782, 5th Co. C Regt. . . . p. 183. Capt. William Richard's Co. Pay Roll for new levies 1st Regt. 1780 Joseph Cook Stubbs of Stonington, Conn., 15 July-9 Dec. 1780. Conn. Probate Court #3192, Simeon Hiscox vs. Joseph Cook Stubbs . . . a court suit that took place 24 Jan. 1774. He is not in the 1790 census. In the 1800 census of Stonington, he is over age 45, wife over 45, and female b. 1790-1799. Name of wife and children unknown. He was married possibly as early as 1770. Marriages known in Conn. are the following whether they are his children or not is unknown.

1. ? Benjamin Stubbs, b. c. 1771, m. (1) ?, m. (2) 5 Mar. 1826, Lucretia (Holmes) Clark, b. 16 May 1781, widow of Ebenezer Holmes, b. 1779, whom she m., 2 Apr. 1803. She was dau. of William and Sarah Clark (Hist. of Woodstock, Ct.).
2. ? Ebenezer, b. say 1780, m. 25 May 1809, Savannah, Georgia (he of Conn.) by Rev. Holcomb, Harriette Vallontton (Abstracts of m. and d. rec. from all extant Georgia papers 1763-1820, by M. B. Warren).

FOURTH GENERATION

6. Richard[4] Stubbs, (Richard,[3], Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 9 Nov. 1717, bpt. 5 Apr. 1730, Hull, Mass., d. 5 July 1785, North Yarmouth, Maine, m. int. 13 Oct. 1739, Mercy Brown, b. 26 Dec. 1718, Salisbury, Mass., d. 26 June 1795, "of fever and old age" (Congr. Church Rec. Cumberland, Me), dau. of Abner and Mary (Morse) Brown, of Salisbury and N. Yarmouth. Richard lived on the lands his father gave him and owned other lands. There are many deeds of purchase and sales (Cumberland Co. deeds). He left a will, mentioned in the sale of lands by his children as "having been left them in the will of their honored father Richard Stubbs, late of North Yarmouth, dec'd." The Probate records of Cumberland Co. were destroyed by fire so it is missing, and without mention of it in the deeds one would not have known that he had left a will. He owned several lots of land as can be seen in the map in "Old Times North Yarmouth," by Corliss. He was early a seaman, later called "Yeoman." In 1759 he was listed as paying a tax of £11.10.03, to North Yarmouth, and in the 1771 tax list was taxed for annual real estate assessed at £8.6.8, one horse, two cattle, 6 goats, and sheep, 24 swine, 4 acres pasture, 10 cows, 8 acres tillage, 80 barrels of cider, 15 acres of upland, 10 tons of English hay, with two ratable polls. On 21 July 1760, he was on a list of persons adjudged qualified to serve as Juror. He served as Pvt. in the Rev. War at the Fort at Falmouth, for 4 days (Mass. Soldiers and Sailors of the Rev. War. p. 211). All of his sons served in the War except Jonathan who was too young. He signed his name to the agreement of the heirs to his father's estate, and the books in his brother Jonathan's estate is evidence of an educated family. His house is mentioned as being on the main road, one and one-half miles up the Royal River from the seaside. It is probable that he had a first wife, the mother of William (named in his grandfather's will) who was born seven and one-half months before Richard married Mercy Brown, unless William's birth should read 26 Feb. 1739/40, instead of 1739. (Double dating was common at this time, the year began 25 March and from 1 Jan. to 24 March, double dates were given to accommodate the Julian and Gregorian systems of dating).

Children, b. North Yarmouth, Maine:

i. William,[5] b. 26 Feb. 1739, possibly 1739/40, bpt. 11 Oct. 1741, d. at Fort Pownal, Maine, at the mouth of the Penobscot River, in 1759. He is mentioned in his grandfather's will to inherit the "Canada Rights" of his grandfather's brother, William Stubbs, who was in the 1690 expedition to Quebec and died sometime before 1696.

ii. Abner,[5] b. 26 Apr. 1740, d. 10 Sept. 1740.

8. Cyrus, b. 3 Aug. 1800, n.f.r.
9. William, b. 28 Nov. 1803, m. Louisa B. Read.
10. Delana, b. c. 1805, m. Stephen Lowell.

18. xiv. Jonathan,[5] b. 9 Mar. 1765.

7. Benjamin[4] Stubbs, (William,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. c. 1720, Nantucket Island, Mass., d. bef. 1790 census, m. (1) 1 Sept. 1743 Joanna Coffin, b. c. 1723, d. 24 Nov. 1760, dau. of Robert and Parnel (Coffin) Coffin, of Nantucket, m. (2) int. 25 July 1761, Nantucket, Eunice Daggett, b. 25 May 1732, Martha's Vineyard, d. 11 June 1818, Nantucket, ae. 86-3-0. Her parents unknown. The records on Benjamin are very few. He probably sailed on whaling voyages. He left a large family, few dates of birth are in the town records. Eunice had one son home in the 1790 census; her daughters Anne and Phebe, under age, were probably working for other families, there were no daughters listed in the census. Several children said not to have had children (in Nantucket V.R. 5 Vols.) in fact were found to have had children. Benjamin is the only son of William known to have stayed on the island. Other sons of William probably went to Conn. and N.Y. where they are found in the Rev. War; and N.Y. where some daughters of Benjamin moved. Conn. and N.Y. are close by sea.

Children, b. Nantucket. (not in order):

i. Dinah,[5] b. c. 1744, m. 2 Feb. 1764, James Murphey/McMurphey.

8. Samuel[4] Stubbs, (Luke,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 25 July 1725, Eastham, Mass., d. after 1797 Bucksport, Maine, no grst.

found, m. 12 Oct. 1749, Truro, Mass., he of Eastham, Anne Rich, b. 23 Apr. 1728, Truro, alive 1797, Bucksport, Maine, dau. of Zaccheus and Ruth (Collins) Rich. Hancock Co. Maine Deed, 44:225, 226, sets forth the names of the heirs of Samuel Stubbs: Ruth Newcomb, Daniel, Lois, Reuben and Anna Whitney of Hampden, Reuben Stubbs, Nathan Atwood, Betsey Atwood, Ebenezer Bassett, Jenne Bassett, all of Buckstown, and Charles Grant and Margaret Grant of Frankfort, who sell to Samuel Stubbs of Buckstown, for $200. quit-claim lot of land #29 1st Range of lots, bounded W. on Penobscot River, E. on the head-line of said front lots, W. on land of James S. Higgins, and S. on land of Benjamin Lowell. Wit. by Abner Curtis and Benjamin Atwood, dated 23 June 1822. (All signed their names). Lot #29 1st range of lots was owned by Samuel's son, Joseph, who died 1791 (1787 map from Mass. Archives #977) Samuel Stubbs also owned lot #29 in the third range of lots in 1790, next to Samuel Stubbs Jr. lot #30). On 13 Mar. 1790 Timothy Arey of Wellfleet, Barnstable Co., Mass. sold to Samuel Stubbs land adjoining Benjamin Lowell on the So. adjoining land of Samuel Stubbs Jr. (Hancock Deed 6:426). On 29 Dec. 1794, Samuel Stubbs sold for £30.00.00. to Samuel Stubbs Jr. land in Buckstown, lot #29 in the third range of lots, containing 50 acres or more, wit. by Jesse Libby and Reuben Stubbs (Hancock Deeds 5:227).

Samuel Stubbs, and his brother James, followed Samuel's son Joseph Stubbs (who was noted on the 1787 map of Buckstown as having lot #29, the 1st Range of lots) to Buckstown (later called "Bucksport," Maine). Samuel was in the Rev. War (Mass. Soldiers and Sailors of Rev. War, Vol. 15, p. 212), named on the Treasury roll of officers and crew of the brigantine "Pallas" an armed Vessell commanded by Capt. James Johnson, for service 3 July 1779 to 20 Aug. 1779, on the Penobscot Expedition against the British, the same expedition his brother James was on. Apparently they liked the area and moved with many others from Cape Cod. Samuel's last deed recorded (Hancock Deeds, 5:520), 21 Aug. 1797, wit. Francis L. B. Goodwin and Jane Goodwin, when he sold to his son Reuben Stubbs, his youngest son, the "land on the E. side Penobscot River, 50 acres more or less, being same lot I now live on, together with dwelling house, barn and corn house, bounded by the hemlock tree on the shore, by Benjamin Lowell's land, S.E. 1¼ mi., N.E. 20 rods to land now improved by Samuel Stubbs Jr., signed by Samuel Stubbs and Anne Stubbs.

Nov. 1758, Eastham, Mass. (M.D. 15:72), Sarah Cahoon, b. c. 1738, Eastham, d. aft. 27 June 1806 (when she was alive in Bucksport, Maine), dau. of James and Mary (Rich) Cahoon. The will of James Cahoon, Gentleman, Barnstable Co. Prob. Vol. XII, p. 101, mentions his children and grandchildren, children of dec'd daughters, and daughter Sarah Stubbs (signed 4 Dec. 1758, Probated 16 Sept. 1760).

James Stubbs and his family moved by 1772 (he is in the 1773 tax list) to Gorham, Maine. His children are listed in, "Early Vital Records of Gorham, Maine," by Marquis King, (Pub. 1897) those b. in Wellfleet, and those in Gorham. James was a Pvt. in the Rev. War from Gorham on the unsuccessful expedition to Castine in Capt. Alexander MCLellen's Co., Col. Edmund Phinney's Regt., serving from 7 July 1779, to his discharge 25 Sept. 1779. Two tax books for the town of Gorham, owned in 1969 by Rev. Harrison Dubbs of Gorham, show James Stubbs paid two polls, his personal tax was about 1/3 rd that of the highest in town, in 1784 his tax was rebated "because he was sick," by Austin Alden, James Phinney, and Stephen Longfellow, assessors. He purchased land in Gorham in 1780 which he sold in 1783 to David Gorham of Barnstable, Mass. He moved to Bucksport, Maine in 1788, along with his brother Samuel whose son, Joseph Stubbs, was the first there in 1787. James is not in the 1790 map of Bucksport, which puzzled the compiler, since he was in the 1790 census there. The town of Bucksport was incorporated in 1792, and from town records we find his widow's farm was leased from the town, being part of the 300-acre SCHOOL LOT, which bordered Orrington. This land was the subject of several town meetings. Living on leased land, James Stubbs was not listed on the map.

Bk. 1, p. 28, on 6 May 1795, "Voted that the selectmen be directed to point out the widow, Sarah Stubbs and her son Ephraim Stubbs, situation who are on the SCHOOL LOT, by putting it in the warrant for the next town meeting."

Bk. 1, p. 72, "Voted that the selectmen lease to the widow Sarah Stubbs fifty acres of land off the SCHOOL LOT being THAT FARM ON WHICH SHE LIVES including her improvements, for the term of three years for one bushel of potatoes per year, dated 5 Nov. 1803."

Bk. 1, p. 81, "Chose Stephen Peabody, Jonathan H. Brown, and James Ginn a committee to appraise the land taken by the town for a road off the land of Joshua Couillard and Joshua Rich and LIKEWISE to take in consideration the land the widow Sarah Stubbs lives on and make a return at the adjournment of this meeting, dated 11 Mar. 1805.

Bk. 1, p. 81, 1 Apr. 1805, "Voted to submit the report made by the committee concerning the land taken of the land of Joshua Couillard for the town road and LIKEWISE concerning the SCHOOL LOT on which Sarah Stubbs now lives."

Bk. 1, p. 84, dated 6 May 1805, "Voted to submit the dispute between the town and the widow Sarah Stubbs concerning the SCHOOL LOT on which she now lives to Capt. Joseph Lee, of Orland, Samuel Bartlett of Orrington, Joseph Wardwell of Frankfort."

ibid: "Voted that the present selectmen be agents for the town to transact the business between the town and the widow Sarah Stubbs concerning the land she now lives on."

The suit between the town and Sarah Stubbs, widow, was taken to court and the following is from the Hancock County Court Record of Superior Judicial Court, Docket #291 (Maine Archives).

Inhabitants of Buckstown vs. Sarah Stubbs, Nov. Term 1805. "The inhabitants of the town of Buckstown in said County whereof I Stephen Peabody, Esq., is one-Plfs vs. Sarah Stubbs of Buckstown aforesaid, Widow, Deft. In a plea of quitment wherein the sd Inhabitants demand against the said Sarah seisen & possession of a tract of Land situated in Buckstown aforesd called the SCHOOL LOT of land, and containing three hundred acres more or less bounded Northerly on the line of the Town of Orrington, Westerly on the Penobscot River, & Southerly on the Land called the College Lot. Whereupon the Demandants say that in time of Peace within thirty years now last past they were seised of the demanded premises for the special purpose of Support to the yearly value of Fifty dollars & still ought to hold & possess the same—Yet said Sarah Stubbs hath since unlawfully entered thereunto & rejected the demandants & still unlawfully withholds the premises from them to the damage of the said Inhabitants of Buckstown as they say the sum of Five Hundred Dollars—This action was entered at the last Term & continued to this term, And now the said Sarah by William Crosby, Esq., her Atty, come & defends her and reserving liberty to wave this plea & plead anew at the Supreme Judicial Court, say she is not guilty in manner & form as the Plfs (plaintifs) have declared against her & thereof put&(etc) And the Plfs by, their Atty Thos S. Sparhawk, Esq., agreeing to the above reservation & reserving to themselves the same liberty, say, the plea above pleaded is bad & insufficient in Law, & thereof pray Judgement—And the sd Sarah, by her Atty, agreeing to the above reservation says her said plea is good&(etc) All which being now seen & by the Court here fully understood it appears to the Court that the Defts (defendants) plea aforesd is good & sufficient in Law. Whereof it is considered by the Court that the said Sarah do recover of the said Inhabitants her costs of the suit taxed at $8.76. Whereupon the said Inhabitants by their said Atty appeal from this Judgement to the next Supreme Judicial Court to be holden at Castine in the County of Hancock & for the Counties of Hancock & Washington, and they entered into Recognizance, with sureties to prosecute the same with effect."

The disposition of the above case is found in the town records of Buckstown Bk. 1, p. 85, dated 27 June 1806, "Voted to discontinue the suit commenced Sarah Stubbs in the year 1805." "Voted to refer the case between the town and Sarah Stubbs to Major Joseph Lee, Capt. Samuel Bartlett, and Capt. Joseph Wardwell."

Ibid: "Voted that the sum of $250.00 be raised by assessment to pay the award of the referees in the case between the town and the widow Sarah Stubbs, and for other purposes."

Sarah (Cahoon) Stubbs was an intelligent woman who pursued her rights and won. She was great-great-granddaughter of Gov. Robert Treat of Conn., whose son, the Rev. Samuel Treat, of Eastham (Harvard College 1669) was her great-grandfather. Her mother was aunt, and she first cousin to Robert Treat Paine, Signer of the Declaration of Independence. She was, also great-granddaughter of Gov. Thomas Roberts of N.H., and descended from the Rev. John Mayo, eminent minister of Eastham and Boston, Mass. James is listed in the 1790 census of Buckstown, with five sons (one under 16) and two females. His son James Jr. had m. 1789 and was in the 1790 census across the Penobscot River in Frankfort.

Children, first five born Wellfleet, Mass., the rest Gorham, Maine:

i. Huldah,[5], b. 9 Aug. 1762, d. Bucksport, Maine, aft. 1812, m. 5 Mar. 1789, Falmouth, Maine, (Cumberland Co. m. rec. p. 20) Timothy McDaniel, mariner. They lived in Falmouth until 1812 when they purchased land from her brother Moses in Bucksport. (Hancock Co. Deeds 32:190) Timothy is in the 1830 census of Bucksport, along with his sons Timothy and Jeremiah. Timothy Jr. b. c. 1788, d. Bucksport, 10 Sept. 1872, ae. 84-2-13, grst. Their nephew Timothy McDaniel Stubbs, son of Moses Stubbs was named for him.

10. Thomas[4] Stubbs, (Luke,[3], Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. c. 1737, alive 1800, Wellfleet, Mass., m. 24 Oct. 1759, Experience Rider. In 1790 census Thomas Stubbs had one son over 16 at home and two daughters. Children are gathered from their marriage and other records. Not all of his children are known, especially if they left Wellfleet. He was named for his grandfather, Thomas Newcomb. Some of the records had his name spelled Stutt, others Stubbs, perhaps due to carelessness in copying or faded writing in records. The compiler copied some of the records from Wellfleet, town records. Some of Thomas's children went to Provincetown, Mass. He and bro. John were the only members of the family to stay in Wellfleet.

Children, some questioned:

i ? Nathan,[5] b. c. 1764, d. 1798 at sea, ae. 33, grst. Provincetown, Mass. cem. with wife and son., m. c. 1784-5 Dorcas, (also sp. Dorias in some rec.) who d. 11 July 1811, ae. 49, grst. She is recorded in the 1800 census with one son und. 10; one female und. 10, and two females 10-16. In some records they are called Tubbs, but the census records call them Stubbs.

12. Richard[5] Stubbs, (Richard,[4] Richard,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 4 Aug. 1744, bpt. 21 Oct. 1744, North Yarmouth, Maine, d. 21 Jan. 1820, Cumberland, Maine, (Sprague's Hist. Vol. 8, p. 170) ae. 73, m. 27 Jan. 1780, North Yarmouth, Abigail Knight, b. c. 1760, d. bef. 18 Dec. 1812 (alive 1808, heirship deed, Cumberland Co. Deeds 73:20, heirs of her honored father, William Knight, late of Falmouth, Maine), m. (2) 18 Dec. 1812 Ruth ( ) Hill, widow of Thomas Hill, (2nd husb.) and of Jacob Allen, her 1st husband. The pension record of Sgt. Richard Stubbs, of the Rev. War (Mass. Soldiers and Sailors, p. 211), National Archives #S37466, when on 25 Apr. 1818 he applied, states he served as Sgt. for one year in Capt. Hill's Co., Col. Edmund Phinney's 17th Regt. from the first of Jan. 1776 to about 20th Jan. 1777, when he was honorably discharged. His pension to start 28 Apr. 1818, the certificate issued 10 Feb. 1819, when he received a semi-annual allowance of $48. His widow, Ruth Stubbs received a pension earlier as widow of Thomas Hill (Pension #25090) 7 (overwritten) Her pension as Thomas's widow, #W25090, states that she married at Falmouth 22 Jan. 1782 Thomas Hill and that he died 22 Jan. 1811; that she had m. as her first husband, Jacob Allen, of Falmouth who had served in the Rev. War and died before the end of the war; that she had children by Jacob Allen. Esther, the widow of Edward Allen, the last surviving child of Ruth Stubbs, claimed under the Act of Congress, 7 July 1838, and 3 Mar. 1843, back pension pay due Ruth Stubbs. David Green, administrator of the estate of Ruth Stubbs of Cumberland, said she died there, 18 July 1841, that her son Edward Allen had died at Gray, Maine, 6 Sept. 1842, and there were no surviving children of Ruth Stubbs, dec'd., and that Richard Stubbs had died 21 Jan. 1820. Esther received a pension of $80 per annum to be paid 17 Apr. 1851 to survivor, Experience Allen, a granddau. (Cumberland Co. deed, 14:178, names Ruth's children Jacob Allen, Edward Allen and Samuel Allen.) Richard, along with his brothers, signed the petition for the North West Religious Society in 1794. He lived in the section of North Yarmouth, set off to Cumberland. His widow was a member of the Congregational Church there in 1821. In the 1771 tax list he had 1 oxen, 7 goats and sheep. In 1794 he was taxed 2.5.7. In the 1810 census he had 3 males, 16-26, 1 male,

10-16 and dau. 10-16., he and wife over 45. William and Reuben and two other sons were alive 1810.

15. Samuel[5] Stubbs, (Richard,[4] Richard,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 6 Feb. 1750, North Yarmouth, Maine, bpt. First Church, 15 Apr. 1750, d. 23 Mar. 1823, Leeds, Maine, m. 17 Mar. 1773, Anne True, bpt. 7 Oct. 1753, First Church, N. Yarmouth, d. 3 Feb. 1803, N. Yarm., dau. of Jonathan and Ann (Stevens) True, of N. Yarmouth. (Will of Jonathan True, lost in Cumberland Co. Ct. House fire, an heirship deed, Vol. 18:469, late of N. Yarmouth, names heirs, including Anna Stubbs, and her husband Samuel, also, dau. Jane Bradbury (True) Stubbs, wife of Samuel's brother Jeremiah . . . dated 28 Apr. 1791). In the 1771 Mass. tax list, he was listed as having one poll, 2 cattle, 4 goats and sheep, 10 acres of pasture, two cows, one acre tillage, 9 bu. grain, 8 acres English upland, 3 tons hay per yr. This was two years before he was married. There are many deeds of purchase and sale while he was living in North Yarmouth, the last dated 12 May 1801, when he sold land to his son Charles, a mariner. On 27 Sept. 1819, Charles Stubbs, mariner, of Savannah, Georgia, sold this land to his brother William Stubbs of N. Yarmouth, and sister Mercy and her husband Joseph Thomas, potter, of N. Yarmouth. Samuel removed to Leeds, Maine where he died intestate, leaving his 2nd wife Ruth Bates, b. c. 1775, whom he married in Leeds 29 May 1805. She died in Milo, Maine, 12 Feb. 1847, grst. While living in Leeds, Samuel Stubbs, Gentleman, with his w. Ruth, relinquishing dower, sold to Joseph Thomas of N. Yarmouth, in a deed dated 26 June 1810, land in N. Yarmouth. On 7 Feb. 1810 he deeded lands in Leeds to his dau. Olive and husband, William Bension Curtis of Leeds.

Samuel was in the Rev. War listed first as a Sgt., 8 May 1775, later, Ensign, 8 Dec. 1776, commissioned as 2nd Lt., 1 Aug. 1776, and listed 1st Lt. recruiting. He received a pension, #38405 (National Arch.) from 16 Apr. 1818, until his death. He stated he was "aged" and not able to work, that his wife was not well, and on a paper dated 26 May 1820, he named all of his children by his second wife and their ages, starting with Richard True Stubbs aged 14 to Rufus aged about one month.

Samuel never received his commission from the Gov't as Lt. and received a pension as "Ensign," though records later showed he had been commissioned. He was active in town and church affairs, being listed many times in the records. He was educated, and an ambitious man, but died with little estate, having taken a second wife at age 55, and having seven more children by her, dying at age 73, an ill old man. The Probate of his estate revealed he owed more money than his estate could pay. His wife was allowed to keep her furnishings. (Kennebec Co. Prob. S-15). A long list of creditors, and the inventory of the estate is enclosed within the papers, dated from 12 July 1823 to 11 Mar. 1824. Samuel was a cordwainer (shoemaker) and as such kept very busy for years. He was called "Gentleman" a courtesy title due an officer of the Rev. War.

Before 1830 Ruth Stubbs moved to Milo, Maine with her sons, where she died.

20. Manning[5] Stubbs, (Benjamin,[4] William,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. c. 1750, Nantucket Island, Mass., death date or place unknown, m. c. 1773, Dinah ———, of Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard, Mass. Manning Stubbs, (his name was from his grandmother's family, Dinah (Manning) Stubbs was in Conn. in the Rev. War on the ship, "Oliver Cromwell" (Conn. Hist. Soc. Coll., Vol. III, p. 251, and Rev. War Rolls lists, Conn. 1775-1783, pub. 1901). Nantucket Vital Records say he had no children, but that is because he moved from the Island and had no children listed there. He was not in the 1790 census, and could have died before then. It is most likely he was the father of a least one child, the evidence to connect her to the Nantucket branch, seems strong. The name Hepsibah is a Coffin name, Manning's mother was Joanna Coffin, and the name Dinah used only in this family, also, the names of Hepsibah Manning Stubbs's children and their children place this family in the Nantucket branch. The Ellis and Daggett families of Martha's Vineyard, in the area in Maine where Hepsibah Manning Stubbs married, and lived, indicate a movement of families from Mass. to Maine. Perhaps Manning's widow remarried and moved to Maine. Records from Harriet (Towle) McCroary Winthrop, Maine 1982, and Evelyn Huckins, Eddington, Maine 1977.

Child, only one known:

i. Hepsibah Manning,[6] b. c. 1774-6, m. Farmington, Maine, 28 June 1794, Jonathan (or John) Kinney, both of Farmington. A tradition handed down in the family of Harriett (Towle) McCroary, Winthrop, Maine that, "Hepsibah died when dau. Lydia was under 6 yrs. Lydia was reared by a Fields family."

Children, (KINNEY) b. Temple, Maine T.R.:

1. John Manning, b. 28 Jan. 1795, d. 29 Jan. 1867, m. 13 Apr. 1817, Lydia Dunham, had children, Manning and Dinah Kinney. A son Israel Dunham Kinney, m. Abigail Goddard Kimball.
2. Nancy Gilman, b. 28 July 1796, d. 7 Mar. 1849, m. (1) 26 Oct. 1817, Solomon Dunham, m. (2) 1820 Hosea Dunham, d. 1877, Madrid, Maine. (Letters, desc. Evelyn Huckins, E. Eddington, Maine, 1970-82).

10. Lydia Bates, b. 1814, m. William Goldsmith, Jr., lived Madrid, Maine.

21. Samuel[5] Stubbs, (Benjamin,[4] William,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 18 Dec. 1761, Nantucket Island, Mass., d. same, 28 Nov. 1817, ae. 55-11-0, s. of Benjamin and his 2nd wife, Eunice (Daggett) Stubbs, m. int. 30 June 1786, Christina Worth, who d. 17 June 1798, he m. (2) her sister, 25 Apr. 1804, Drusilla Worth, daus. of Sylvanus and Rachel (Allen) Worth. Samuel was a cordwainer, and amassed a large estate for those times. The Stubbs family lived in the part of the island called "Sherburn." His estate (Nantucket Prob. 1815-1824, p. 113), administered by his son William, presented 7 Jan. 1819, lists his house and stores, fine furniture, silver, etc. amounting to $9,000.00. Mentions wife, Drusilla and names children.

Children, b. Nantucket, in V.R. pub.:

i. Sarah,[6] called "Sally," b. 28 Jan. 1787, d. unm. 12 July 1832.

49. ii. William,[6] b. 4 Sept. 1788.

The inventory shows a very large estate: stores, office bldg., part interest in the whaling ship, "John Adams," worth $1,098.33, the rest of his estate worth $7,633.38.

Charles is called a "tin plate" worker, and merchant. He owned a 3 story bldg. mentioned in "The Inquirer" (Hist. of Nantucket) by Starbuck. His heirs, brother William Stubbs, wife Sally, 1/3, sisters, Sally Stubbs and Christina Gale.

v. Christina,[6] b. 18 Sept. 1795, m. 20 May 1813, Dr. Edmond Gale b. 1 Oct. 1788, d. 4 Feb. 1824, son of Edmond and Margaret (Stubbs) Gale, making them cousins. She m. (2) aft. 1842, Thomas Macy, Esq. as his 3rd wife, a merchant and widower. Thomas had married Eunice Coffin dau. of Zenas Coffin, a leading whale oil merchant of the Island. See, William Gardner's, "The Coffin Saga," (1949), for pictures of the Eunice (Coffin) Macy house, where Christina lived with her second husband.

Children by 1st husband (GALE), b. Nantucket Island:

22. Capt. William[5] Stubbs, (Benjamin,[4] William,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 13 Oct. 1768, Nantucket, d. 24 Feb. 1852, Durham, Maine, grst., ae. 78-3-3, (error, he was 84, he gave a younger age in the 1850 census as so often happens when a man marries a much younger wife). He is bur. in Silvester Cem. on the road to Freeport, m. (1) int. 12 Oct. 1797, Nantucket, Sarah Worth, d. 31 June 1808, dau. William and Ruth (Folger) Worth, m. (2) aft. 1808, Eliza Leggett, b. 15 Apr. 1791 (their Bible), d. 30 Jan. 1830, Portland, Maine (Reg. 100:282) "Eliza Stubbs, w. of William, late of Nantucket, d. 30 Jan. 1830, ae. 41, also, child of William Stubbs, d. 6 Dec. 1826, ae. 1 yr. at Portland, Maine). He m. (3) int. 18 May 1833, Portland, Maine, the widow Jane (Emery) Hodgdon, b. 3 Apr. 1792, Poland, Maine, (Reg. Apr. 1934) d. bef. 1860 census, dau. of Mark and Ann (Barton) Emery.

William lived in Nantucket until about 1815, when he went to live in Boston and is found there in the 1820 census. A deed, Suffolk Co. 269:190, dated 9 Nov. 1820, William Stubbs, Master mariner, wife Eliza relinquishes dower. He moved to Portland before 1826 when a child died there, and is found in the 1827 city directory, and in the 1830 directory living on Hancock St. a Packet-master of a ship going back and forth to Boston. He moved to Durham, Maine before 1836 when his last child was born. In the 1850 census Durham, he gave his birthplace as Mass. Many deeds are at the Cumberland Co. Reg. deeds, 236:356, William and Jane Stubbs to Congregational Church, land and bldgs. on "which I now live," 30 Aug. 1851, six months before he died. The records on this family (one in which the Nantucket records quoted, "no children") were quite sketchy, until 1979 when William May Stubbs of Allendale, N.J., sent Bible records of this family and descendants. The only known children before were Samuel and Charles. (Some d. recs. Boston, Mass. Columbian Centennial).

Ruth Atwood, b. c. 1760, Wellfleet, d. 2 Mar. 1843, Hampden, Maine, (grst.) Locust Grove Cem., ae. 83-2-0, dau. of David and Ruth (Collins) Atwood. The Bible records of this family owned in 1930 by Clara (Rogers) Tolman, N.Y., who corresponded with Arthur Stubbs, of Lynn, Mass., trying to find her second Stubbs line. The Bible Records are also in the Boston Transcript #9514, Jan. 1930. Joseph was the first of the Stubbs family to go to the town of Buckstown (later called Bucksport) and is found in the 1787 map of Buckstown, found at the Hancock Co. Reg. of Deeds. The Bible says he was accidently shot while hunting bear. He was in the Rev. War (Mass. Soldiers and Sailors of the Rev. War, Vol. 15, p. 211, first in Capt. Winslow's Co., dated 13 Jan. 1776, when he was allowed pay for 214 miles travel, and again, engaged 1 Jan. 1777, discharged 26 Jan. 1777, being a seaman on the Schooner, "Edward" on a voyage from Boston to Virginia. Samuel[5] Stubbs, (Samuel,[4] Luke,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. c. 1768/9, Wellfleet, Mass., d. 4 Sept. 1856, Bucksport, Maine (grst. gives age 85; however, he owned land in 1790, so was probably born a bit earlier), m. pub. 2 Sept. 1797, Bucksport, Hannah Kent, b. c. 1777, prob. Cape Cod, d. 27 Dec. 1840, Bucksport, grst., bur. in fam. lot with husb., Riverview Cem. Samuel is probably the Capt. Stubbs mentioned in 1796, of Bucksport, in the book, Old River Town, by Littlefield. Samuel Stubbs Jr. is mentioned in a deed 1790 as owning lot #29 in the 3rd range, next to land of his father (map of Bucksport, 1790, Mass Archives #977). He purchased more land from his father, 27 Dec. 1794 (Hancock Co. Deeds 5:227). He was active in town affairs, serving 1797 as hog reeve, 1812, 1813, 1822 as surveyor of highways and in 1810 he was on the fish commission. His sons Edward, Reuben and Samuel were often identified in deeds selling land together, with wives relinquishing dower (Hancock Co. deeds 84:10, in 1842, and 73:474, in 1843). Samuel purchased lot #29 in the first range from his father's heirs in 1822.

The 1850 census says he was b. in Mass. A Bible is needed for complete records on this family.

(blotted) alive, ae. 76, 1850 census, Brewer, Maine, m (1) int. 10 Oct. 1798, Bucksport, Maine, m. 15 Oct. 1798, Anna "Fanny" Eldridge, b. 2 Apr. 1780, Wellfleet, Mass., d. 27 Apr. 1830 (grst.), ae. 50-2-23, Cem. Duck Cove Road, Bucksport, Maine, dau. Ebenezer and Tamsen (Kent) Eldridge, m. (2) 25 July 1830, Mrs. Anne Chase. He is in all census records from 1800-1850. In 1836, he was declared "insane" or incapable of taking care of himself, (Hancock Co. Prob. Vol. 9, p. 346), when his sons Stillman, Samuel E., and Reuben Stubbs, requested guardianship. Hancock Co. Deeds 59, p. 336, Reuben Stubbs and Ann, his wife, of Brewer, sell to Joseph Stubbs, land in Bucksport," I recently lived on about 50 acres and bldgs." signed 14 May 1835. His family is recorded in the Eldridge Family reunion 1926, a booklet owned by Fulton Eldridge (1975) son of Ardelle M. Stubbs and Albert M. Eldridge, (sent to the compiler). After the death of his first wife, his children, Ebenezer, Reuben, James and William Stubbs are mentioned in Hancock Co. Prob. Vol. 9, p. 37, #1339, and Vol. 3, p. 221, Guardianship was mentioned also for Cyrus and Sarah Stubbs, 1832.

26. Ephraim[5] Stubbs, (James,[4], Luke,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 7 Aug. 1764, Wellfleet, Mass., d. bef. 2 June 1836, Hampden, Maine, m. 24 Nov. 1790, Orrington, Maine, Abigail Myrick, b. 10 Oct. 1769, Cape, Cod, d. bef. 1814, Hampden, dau. Nathaniel and Elizabeth ( ) Myrick of Hampden, m. (2) 8 Dec. 1814, Hampden, Hepsibah West, ae. 45, b.c. 1769, Nova Scotia, alive 1850, living with step-son, Jefferson Stubbs. Ephraim Stubbs's will signed 20 Jan. 1836 (Penobscot Co. Prob. 12:30, 31), mentions his dau. Huldah Stubbs, wife of Eldad Stubbs, and unnamed dau. of his dec'd dau. Polly Mayo, late wife of Howes Mayo, son Jefferson Stubbs, wife Hepsibah to receive $400.00 the son and dau. to divide the rest equally. The will of Nathaniel Myrick, Hampden, (Hancock Co. Prob. 5:157) signed 21 June 1809, to daughter Abigail Stubbs $60.00. From Bucksport town records, Ephraim was active in town affairs from its incorporation in 1792, when he was chosen to be on the Fish Committee, again 4 Apr. 1796, and 13 Mar. 1798. On 10 Mar. 1799 he was chosen Constable. On 2 Apr. 1798 the town gave Ephraim Stubbs a lease of the following tract of land for nine hundred and ninety nine years: beginning at the town line at the river between Buckstown and Orrington, Southerly 40 rods, Easterly parallel with the town line so far as to include 50 acres . . . . etc., at $3.00 per acre, he to pay $50. per year for three years with interest (This part of the 300 acre SCHOOL LOT adjoining the South line of the Town of Orrington.) Five years later, the town voted to lease Ephraim Stubbs about 50 acres, for the term of nine hundred ninety nine years off the SCHOOL LOT adjoining Orrington South line, so as to include a landing at the main river, for $4.00 per acre, one hundred dollars to be paid in eight months and the remainder in two years, with interest. In 1798 he signed a petition for a Charter for a Masonic Lodge, along with his brother James Stubbs of Frankfort and several others. By 1810 Ephraim was living in Hampden, Maine, across the Penobscot River from North Bucksport. His name is listed in a number of law suits (Hancock Co. Superior Judicial Court, the most interesting being a suit brought against Ephraim by Jesse Libby Jr. of Hampden (Court Rec. Vol. 14 #209) when he was found guilty of assaulting Jesse and fined $5.00 and court costs April Term 1813. Apparently Jesse Libby Jr. taunted Ephraim causing him to beat him. For on 7 June 1814 Ephraim sued him on a plea of trespass saying that on 22 Feb. 1814 Jesse Libby Jr. did compose and publish in sight and hearing of many people an infamous libel . . . "Epitaph"

Here lies the boy his parents joy no more from him we learn
I hear he'd say at Judgement day My father burnt a barn
Follow this Goad you'll find the toad that stole his neighbors leather
That stole a net when newly set from Moses his own brother (Meaning and intending that the plaintiff had been guilty of burning and intending the plaintiff had stolen leather and also a fishing net: Whereas in truth the plaintiff was not guilty of any such crimes, etc.). Plaintiff says from 22 Feb. now last at Hampden the said Jesse Libby Jr. did compose and publish . . . "and he has undergone great pain etc. . ." Recovered from Jesse Libby Jr. $20. and costs. This incident gives a little spice to small upheavals in the quiet of a village.

Children, b. Bucksport (Buckstown) Maine:

i. Son,[6] b. 1790-1799 (1800 census), alive 1830, ae. 20-30, not in father's will.

ii. Son,[6] b. 1790-1799, prob. d.y.

iii. Huldah,[6] b. 3 Oct. 1791, m. her 2nd cousin Eldad[6] Stubbs (#55).

iv. Mary,[6] "Polly," b. c. 1793, d. bef. 1829, when her husband Howes Mayo, b. 3 Mar. 1791, d. 8 Dec. 1869, grst., m. (2) 7 Aug. 1829, Huldah Harding.

Child (MAYO):

1. dau. b. bef. 1829, in grandfather's will, 1836.

66. v. Jefferson,[6] b. 1805 (census).

27. James[5] Stubbs, (James,[4] Luke,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 14 July 1766, Wellfleet, Mass., d. 21 April 1836, Frankfort, Maine (later set off 1860 as Winterport), m. 11 Feb. 1789, Orrington, Maine, Sarah Wheelden, b. 14 Mar. 1771, Wellfleet, Mass. (her father's Bible owned by Bernice Newton, Orrington, 1969), d. 1860 Winterport, Maine, dau. of Ebenezer and Rebecca (Young) Wheelden of Wellfleet, and Orrington, Maine. Bur. on their farm with husband, the grsts. long gone. She was alive in the 1859 map of Winterport, (Town libr.) in the house below her son David's. She is mentioned in her father's will, Hancock Co. Prob. Docket #505, Vol. 5, p. 524, signed 5 Oct. 1805, probated, 24 Nov. 1812, a Bible was given her. James is found in the 1790 census with wife. In 1800 census he had one son. He is listed as coming from "Cape Cod," along with his brother Benjamin who owned adjoining property on Oak Point along the Penobscot River. James's first recorded purchase of land was in 1794. On 21 June 1800, he was the highest bidder on 5,604 acres of land in Frankfort, extending from the Hampden line, south and west. When he sold this off he was called "trader" on deeds. He was also a carpenter, commissioned to build a school house (Old River Town, by Littlefield). He owned lot #280 on a map listed in above book. A desk he made in the late 1700s is owned by his great-great-grandson Donald Stephen Stubbs. The desk came down through David, Barnabas, to Arthur, Donald's father. In the inventory of his estate in 1840, this desk was valued at $3.00, and in 1982 at over $1,000. It is exquisitely made, and in excellent condition. James was an enterprising man. In 1798 he and his brother Ephraim petitioned for a Charter for a Masonic Lodge in Orrington, which was not followed through. In 1801 James again petitioned for a Charter for another lodge, this time in Hampden. He became a charter member of "Rising Virtue Lodge" F&A M which later moved to Bangor. As a Master Mason he was a petitioner for a lodge in Bucksport, Felicity Lodge #19, and was a member there. (See: Anniversary of Rising Virtue Lodge #10 F&A M—1904). He was chosen the 1st Tues. in May 1810 as Grand Juror, Petit Juror and "Talisman" (Hancock Co. Superior Ct. Rec. Vol. 12, #3306). He was one of three to appraise the estate of Moses Wentworth of Orrington in 1812. At his death James's wife received her third and their son the two thirds; they shared the barn and bridle path and wharf. (Waldo Co. Probate #927, his wife named adminx. of his estate). A chart of James's descendants was made by his great-grandson, Arthur Stubbs in the late 1920's. A wharf is mentioned in the admin. of his est. indicating he was probably a part time seaman like many, or had a boat for use to travel, as automobiles are used now (1982). He died ae. seventy, and his wife was eighty-nine. Their son lived to eighty-nine, and several grandchildren lived into their eighties. The compiler visited the site of the house of James and his son David in 1969 and took some home-made bricks from the cellar of James's house (probably built 1794), long since gone.

Child, b. Frankfort, Maine:

67. i. David Henry,[6] b. c. 1794. (census).

28. Benjamin[5] Stubbs, (James,[4] Luke,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 26 Sept. 1768, Wellfleet, Mass., d. 6 Apr. 1856, grst., bur. Oak Point, Winterport, Maine in the family lot., m. int. 13 Sept. 1792, Orrington, Maine, Mehitable Swett, b. c. 1772 (census), Mass., d. after 1850 census, wooden grst. "Mother." Benjamin's age is given as 92, instead of 88, the stone being placed there at the time (1863) his grandson Ambrose was buried there. July term Hancock Court, 1815, Benjamin Stubbs chosen Petit Juror. According to the "Old River Town" by Littlefield, his lot #279 is next to his brother James's on Oak Point, the point of land jutting into the Penobscot River, called "Stubbs Point." The 1859 map of the town by E. M. Woodford, Phila., Pa., in the Winterport town libr., shows Benjamin Stubbs, below him his son Lemuel, next his nephew David and next David's mother Sarah (Wheelden) Stubbs. Benjamin was probably a seaman when he was young. By 1850 he is called farmer.

29. Moses[5] Stubbs, (James,[4] Luke,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 8 Mar. 1771, Wellfleet, Mass. (Early Gorham, Me. V.R. by King), d. bef. 1830, Bucksport, Maine, m. int. 7 Mar. 1795, Phebe Mann, alive 1844, when son Moses, m. in Boston. The records of his children not in town records and gleaned from deeds, and other fam. records. The children of Moses Stubbs, Samuel Stubbs, Jr. and John Stubbs, are not in the vital records and several male and female marriage records in Bucksport and Orrington could refer to children of these men. Bibles are needed for complete family records for each. Moses was active in town affairs; 1800, fence viewer; 1803, deer reeve; 1811, measurer of bark and wood; 1818, surveyor of highways. He sold 100 acres to his brother-in-law Timothy McDaniel, 24 July 1812, (Hancock Deeds, 32, p. 190). He named one of his sons for this brother-in-law. James, his eldest son, sold land to brothers Robert, Timothy and Abel, all closely associated in various ways. This family seemed to gravitate to So. Orrington, which was nearby, since Moses lived on what was known as the College lot he purchased from Harvard College, located just below the school lot on which his mother lived and where he was reared. It is said he had a dau. Sally. A Sally Stubbs, m. int. 21 June 1835, Bucksport, John H. Blanchard, Orrington.

Children, b. N. Bucksport, Maine:

i. dau.,[6] b. 1794-1799, alive 1820 census.

x. dau.,[6] 1804-1809, alive 1820 (with bro. James, 1830).

74. xi. Timothy McDaniel,[6] b. 23 Apr. 1811 (with bro. James. 1830).

xii. Phebe,[6] b. 1813, m. int. 12 Mar. 1832, Samuel Atwood. She was in the 1830 census with bro. James. Alive 1850 census, Orrington, Maine, ae. 37, alone with daus. (ATWOOD): Susanna L., ae. 10 and Mary A., ae. 8, Nancy Swett, ae. 79, living with her.

xiii. Moses,[6] b. 1816, a seaman, married in Boston, Mass. (son of Moses Stubbs, dec'd. of Bucksport, and Phebe his wife) 17 July 1844, Catherine (Berkley) Atwater, widow. She was widowed again by 1859, according to the city directories, and died, 20 Feb. 1872, ae. 62, dau. of Cornelius and Mary Berkley of Ireland. (Moses lived with bro. James in 1830).

30. John[5] Stubbs, (James,[4] Luke,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 27 Nov. 1774, Gorham, Maine, (Early Gorham Vital Records, by M. King, 1897) d. bef. 25 Feb. 1831, Bucksport, Maine, m. int. 8 Mar. 1801, Bucksport, Mary "Polly" Smalley, b. 27 Mar. 1776, dau. of Joseph and Sarah (Dyer) Smalley, m. (2) 11 Nov. 1822, Deborah Gross of Orland, Maine. John was a mariner. He was active in town affairs being chosen 11 Mar. 1805 to be on the fish Comm. with his brother Reuben. He enlisted 3 Aug. 1813 for five years as a Pvt. in the 5th Infantry, received an honorable medical discharge 13 Apr. 1816. His certificate of discharge describes him as having dark hair and blue eyes. He received a land bounty of 160 acres (Warrant #9748) located in Ohio which he sold in 1817. He is listed in the 1810 census Bucksport, with two sons and four daughters under ten. He is not in the 1820, 1830 census and there are no land records for him in Maine. He lived on the school lot his parents leased from the town, as did his brother Ephraim. There were court cases from 1805-1816 (Hancock Co. Inferior Ct. Rec.) naming John Stubbs, both in suits by him, and against him (Vol. 7 #226, dated May term 1806, Vol. 5 #205, dated 7 May 1805, Vol. 13 #44 dated 19 Aug. 1811, Vol. 14 #325, dated 24 Oct. 1812, (ibid: #337c dated 14 May 1812, he of Bucksport, Vol. 17 #65, John Stubbs of Portland, 1 June 1816 vs. Oliver Blake of Castine, suit 18 July 1816. John was of Bucksport, when a suit was instituted by Thomas Minot of Portland 7 May 1805, on an earlier note dated 15 June 1803. From this we see he was in Portland at least a while in 1816. He may have been there soon after he was discharged from the Army, looking for work. The Waldo Co. Probate Record #441 dated 25 Feb. 1831, calls him dec'd and a guardian appointed for his son Trueworthy Stubbs, minor over 14 years of age., Ebenezer Seavey of Bangor, his guardian. His children named are from city directories, census records, and Mass. Vital Records of their deaths, naming parents and places of birth. Letters from Dorothy Huggan, whose great-great-grandmother, Emily Stubbs, died in 1887 in Mass., naming John Stubbs of Bucksport as her father dove-tails with all other records. A Bible record is needed for the other children. A Thomas Stubbs was in Boston, at the same time as John. He could be the brother b. bef. 1809. DAR #664695 for Dorothy Huggan (on her ancestry to James Stubbs, father of John). Dorothy is also a member of the Mayflower Society and Col.

Dames of the XVIIth Century, joining on her Stubbs ancestry.

(Isaac Sparrow Bible, owned in 1931 by Belle Tibbetts, Winterport, Maine). Reuben and his brother John were home with their mother, the widow Sarah Stubbs, in the 1800 census Bucksport, living on the School lot, bordering So. Orrington. He was active in town affairs, being on the fish committee 11 Mar. 1805 with his brother John. His children are not listed in the town records, and were found in Capt. Jabez S. Stubbs's Bible, Pub. by H&E Phinney, 1833, purchased by George Kennedy, reporter for the Washington, D.C. Star, and mentioned in his Column, "The Rambler," 27 Mar. 1962. A copy of newsclip sent to the compiler, 1969. Mrs. Kennedy copied the records, sent by Mr. Kennedy to the compiler. He said he had great response to his article. Until that time only four sons had been known to the compiler as Reuben and Polly's children. Reuben was the youngest brother of the compiler's ancestor, James Stubbs Jr., so his descendants shared the same ancestry, researched through the many lines back to Cape Cod, including Stephen Hopkins of the "Mayflower." These records also enabled the identification of Reuben's two sons who left Bucksport for the Southwest about 1831. His mother lived with him after his father died. Their Cape Cod house on the shore of the Penobscot, with wharf, were painted by William Pierce Stubbs, their grandson. The painting is at the Peabody Museum, Salem, Mass.

SIXTH GENERATION

34. William[6] Stubbs, (Richard,[5] Richard,[4], Richard,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 22 Jan. 1792, N. Yarmouth, Maine, d. Naples, Maine, 6 Nov. 1851, grst., ae. 59-10-0, m. 28 Nov. 1816 N. Yarmouth, Hannah P. Webb, b. c. 1798, alive 1 May 1853 (Cumberland Co. deeds, 244:463, Thomas I. Carter, and Mary Ann, his wife to Hannah P. Stubbs, widow, of Naples, land near Long Pond, with house, signed 1 Mar. 1853). William was on the militia roll N. Yarmouth in 1820, he was on the list of petitioners for the division of North Yarmouth and Cumberland, 1820. Hannah P. Stubbs joined the church in Cumberland 1831. William and his brother Reuben had many deeds mentioning their father Richard Stubbs. William purchased their father's homestead when Reuben moved to Sumner, Maine, in 1837 (Cumberland deeds 160:173, signed Reuben and w. Nancy Stubbs), William on 8 Feb. 1848 sold this land for $1,800, to Nathaniel Merrill, and purchased, 4 Oct. 1848 from Thomas I. Carter of Naples, a part of the so-called Brackett place, (deeds 211:276). In the 1850 census Naples William gave his age as 58, and Hannah P. Stubbs wife gave hers as 52. In the 1820 census an unknown brother was living with him. Their mother had died by 1812, and their father d. 1820.

Child (needs confirmation):

i. ? Mary Ann,[7] b. 1824-30, m. Thomas I. Carter. The several deeds between these persons suggests a possible connection. They had a dau., b. 1824-30, in the 1840 census. It would be natural for them to move to a town where their only child lived.

She had at least two children by him. He was bur. Jay Hill Cem., having d. 2 Oct. 1842. A deposition of Philip Morse Stubbs, Sarah's son, naming her as his mother, was probably initiated because she had married a 2nd time, and he wanted it to be on record. Kennebec Co. Prob. 23:65, admin. est. Abner Stubbs, (widow Sally signs name) dated 9 Aug. 1814. Kennebec Co. Deeds 117:88, Abner Stubbs, Philip Stubbs, Stanley Rollins, Martha Rollins, in her right, Smith Nash, Amy Nash, in her right, sell the Stubbs home place, as heirs of William Stubbs, late of Fayette, dec'd., to John Woodbury, signed 5 Feb. 1833. Many records of this family are owned by a descendant, Robert Goff Stubbs, former Mayor of Hallowell, who entertained the compiler, sharing records and pictures. William Stubbs was the ancestor of many distinguished descendants: judges, lawyers, senators, representatives and doctors. (See: Downeast Ancestry, Dec. 1977, Vol. 1, #4, p. 13 for records of Ezra Fuller, by Vivian Santerre, Woodland, Maine, now (1982) of Cape Elizabeth, Maine.

Abner was in Norway, Maine when on 5 July 1806 he sold to Moses Stubbs, his uncle of North Yarmouth, land in N. Yarmouth, "of my father, Abner Stubbs, late dec'd, descended to me through my mother Lorana Stubbs, by right of her dower" (this deed also mentions his brother Reuben Stubbs dec'd.) (Cumberland Co. Maine deeds 58:103). He, also, sold land in Norway, 4 Aug. 1809 (Oxford Co. deeds 4:388) when he is referred to as "housewright." In the 1820 census, Norway, he is called a merchant, he had two sons and one daughter all under ten yrs. The Oxford County Advertiser, 22 May 1896 (a xeroxed copy sent in Feb. 1984, when the galleys were being proof read) clarifies the question I had about Thomas Hill Stubbs being the son of Abner Stubbs and a then unknown first wife. This article about Abner Stubbs and his family brought forth more information than could have ever been known, since the information was given by Alazander Sarah (Stubbs) Andrews, his daughter by his second wife. The "History of Otisfield," states that Abner's daughter Alazander Stubbs was reared by her uncle Richard Lombard, and that her grandfather John Lombard lived with her after she married. Abner's sons Thomas and Abner were probably reared by their mother's family. Abner moved to Sumner, Maine in 1820, and to N.Y. c. 1833.

Her grand-niece Florence (Varnum) Flagg-Davio-Stubbs, aunt of the compiler, remembered that her grandfather told of sending barrels of food to his son-in-law Reuben Stubbs, during a drought out West. The Eldridge Family reunion 1926 gives records of this family, mentioning that Hudson Stubbs, lived then, in Whittier, Cal. Gertrude (Stubbs) Ackles published a small booklet in 1956, recounting the adventures of the Western trek of Reuben and his family. She had incorrectly assigned her grandfather Reuben Stubbs as grandson of James and Sarah (Cahoon) Stubbs, whose only son listed in the Bucksport records was Reuben who was born 1781 in Gorham, Maine. Reuben Stubbs left Bucksport in the early 1850s with some of his brothers and sister Ruth, stopping along the way in Ill. and Iowa. He finally settled on a farm in Nebraska. (Some records from Jerry L. Burnham, San Jose, Cal., 1980-83).

She is mentioned in her father's will, signed 1840, Waldo Co. Probate Docket #579. Waldo Co. Ct. Rec. Docket #292, Vol. 6, p. 126, 127, gives his marriage date, when Martha filed for a divorce in 1854. He continued to list his wife's name in the census records. Being an only child he inherited 2/3rds of his father's estate in 1840, and in 1860 when his mother died, received her 1/3 widow dower rights. "An Old River Town," mentions this family and shows the location of the lot numbers of his father and Uncle Benjamin. An old map, 1855 by E. M. Woodford, Phila., Pa., in the cellar of the Winterport libr., shows David Stubbs's house located just north of his mother's, the widow Sarah Stubbs. The small storage cellars of these old houses could still be seen in 1970 (visited by the compiler, who took a few old handmade bricks from David's father's house built c. 1794). David was in the war of 1812, in the British attack on Hampden in 1814, and rec'd a pension when he was old. National Archives Pension #25,189), describes him as having been 5'8", with dark hair and dark blue eyes, and said he had been granted 160 acres of land, under the act of 3 Mar. 1855, #75198. Two of his grandsons, Stephen Downs of Bangor, and Jason Smith, witnessed his application, 19 Apr. 1878. He sold his father's homestead to his youngest son Stephen L. Stubbs, 16 Sept. 1876. A chart made by his grandson, Arthur Stubbs, of Lynn, Mass., made in the 1920s, was sent to the compiler by Brenda (Stubbs) Mac Eachin, Ft. Worth, Tex., 1970. It showed children who had died and would not otherwise have been known, except in census rec. by ages. He was called Capt. Stubbs, and had the use of the family wharf, 1840.

Franklin left Bucksport with his brothers Washington and Jabez going to the busy port town of New Orleans, La. Franklin married in La. and his brother Washington went on to Texas. These brothers kept in touch with each other. Capt. Jabez came to see them when he was in New Orleans, and wrote to his brother, Washington. There were traditions in both brothers' families about Capt. Jabez Stubbs, that "he owned ships" and could play a "Jew's Harp." Franklin was a cotton gin mill owner, his mill called "Stubbs Mill." He lived on "Stubbs Creek," and people voted at "Stubbs P.O." Franklin furnished materials for the Civil War, and purchased two $200 bonds, contributing to the War in which his nephew Nathaniel Stubbs was killed while serving in the Union Army. He left many descendants (Letters from Flavia (Stubbs) Wallace-Fleishman, Baytown, Tex., Mary (Stubbs) Widmar, Las Vegas, Nev. and Mary Louise (Freeman) Stubbs, (Tylertown, Miss.). He m. 77. Jabez S.[6] Stubbs, (Reuben,[5] James,[4] Luke,[3] Richard,[2] Richard[1]) b. 6 Oct. 1809, Bucksport, Maine (his Bible), d. 4 Mar. 1872, Bucksport, ae. 65-5-0, grst., bur. Oak Hill Cem. (T.R. gives his d. 5 Mar. 1872, ae. 63-4-27), m. 15 Dec. 1831 (Bible) Susan M. Parshley, b. 9 July 1812, Bath, Maine, d. 8 Mar. 1902, ae. 90-8-0, Bucksport, bur. with husb., dau. of Nathan and Ella (Morse) Parshley. Jabez was a well-to-do sea-capt. being a part owner of several ships. He went to China in the "Art Union" (built in Newbury, Mass., registered in Boston, Mass., 21 Nov. 1850), where he had a Chinese artist paint his ship, which the compiler believes was the inspiration his nephew William Pierce Stubbs received in becoming a painter of ships. His style had the same simplicity of line and exquisite detail of the Chinese artist's work. (July 9, 1971 issue of North Shore Town Talk has a picture of the "Art Union"). His Bible, owned by George Kennedy a reporter of the Washington Star, who wrote an article, "Rambling Around Washington," 27 Mar. 1962 about his purchase of the leather bound Bible pub. by Phinney in 1833; had the birth dates of Jabez's parents and brothers and sisters. Mrs. Kennedy kindly copied the records for the compiler in 1970. The data were not in the town records, and therefore were very valuable in establishing this family. Jabez, his brothers Washington and Franklin Stubbs, went to New Orleans (a busy port town) about 1832. The desc. of both Franklin and Washington had information about the grandfather Washington, or Franklin's famous brother Capt. Jabez, handed down. Two of Jabez's ships were the clipper ships "Eddystone," and "Laura." His only dau. died, and he tried to adopt one of Washington's daughters, but Washington refused. Jabez and his wife then adopted Annette "Nettie" L. Crooker, (Hancock Co. Prob. Vol. 37, p. 479) b. 26 July 1859, Chelsea, Mass. dau. of Stephen N. Crooker, and Frances M. Crooker, (his wife dec'd.) dated 29 Oct. 1862. Jabez's will, signed 16 June 1868, probated 1872 (Hancock Co. Prob. 52:110) #336, gives his mother, still alive, the house at his death, his brother Reuben to have the house at his mother's death, the rest to wife Susan. Susan's will, signed 21 Aug. 1899 probated 25 May 1902, with codicils, first gives $500. each to her husband's brothers Jonathan and Reuben. Later codicils give to her grandson Jabez Stubbs Lowell, and then all to her nephew, Robert Rogers, Everett, Mass. A law originated in Mass. in 1851 making adoptions legal, the first State to enact such a law. Several Stubbs families took advantage by adopting motherless children. Jabez and his wife, saddened by the loss in 1848 of their only daughter who was almost fifteen years old when she died, finally were able in 1862 to adopt a small three year old child. They left no descendants and his est. was distributed to his wife's relatives, except his parent's mortgaged estate (to him in 1847) which he deeded to his brother Reuben for his mother's life care.

Child, b. Bucksport, Maine:

i. Mary Jane,[7] b. 30 Aug. 1833 (Bible), d. 29 Aug. 1848, ae. 14-11-29, "died at her grandfather's" (Bible).

Bible, owned by the Lawrence family) d. 22 Jan. 1897, Old River, Tex., at son Washington's house, dau. of Samuel and Mary Ann (Roule)

Fisher. Washington left Bucksport, Maine with his brother Franklin and probably Jabez for New Orleans, about 1831/2. Franklin stayed in La., and Washington appears in deeds in Texas 1837. He owned up to 1,000 acres of land and at one time had 100 slaves. He was in the lumber business. His granddaughter Flavia (Stubbs) Wallace-Fleishman, tried unsuccessfully for over 20 years to find her grandfather's ancestry in Bucksport, Maine. Her aunt Joanna, who lived with her in her aging years, told her about Capt. Jabez Stubbs, Washington's brother, who lived in Bucksport wanting to adopt one of Washington's daughters after his own daughter died. The letter Flavia wrote in 1965 to Gilbert Titcomb, whose mother was a Stubbs, found its way to the compiler years later. Washington was elected to office as County Commissioner for Liberty Co. Tex., 21 Aug. 1850, and was also listed in the book, "Judges of The Republic of Texas, 1836-1846," by Joe Ericson. He served one term as Justice of the Peace in Liberty Co. 1841-43. He owned 640 acres on Lawrences Island at the mouth of the Trinity River. He was a member of Cedar Bayou F&A.M. Lodge (Harris Co.) Tex. (Records of his desc. compiled by Flavia (Stubbs) Wallace-Fleishman. Some records from Fred Lee Williams, 1981, both of Baytown, Tex.).

(2) June 1844 Joel Blaisdell. They moved to Milo, Maine, where they were in the 1850 census. Abner is called "Merchant" in the records. He owned "Stubbs Mill" Jay, Maine. Francis Lyford, Hallowell, appt'd guardian of Helen M., Julia E., and William T. Stubbs, sold land 15 Apr. 1843 for their benefit, (Franklin Co. deeds 10:163).

Children, b. Jay, Maine:

i. Helen M.,[8] b. 15 Dec. 1828, d. 25 Feb. 1858, Indianapolis, Ind., ae. 30, unm. (F.R.).

ii. Sarah Jerusha,[8] b. 29 Aug. 1830 (F.R.), d. 23 Mar. 1835.

iii. William,[8] b. 6 June 1832, d.y.

iv. Julia Emma,[8] b. 19 Mar. 1837, m. 28 Jan. 1861, Milo, L. W. Goodridge.

175. v. William Talbot,[8] b. 11 Mar. 1839.

93. Philip Morse[7] Stubbs (William,[6] Abner,[5] Richard[4,3,2,1]) b. 26 June 1805, Fayette, Maine, d. 23/26 Aug. 1876 (2 rec.) Strong, Maine, m. 11 Aug. 1834, Strong, Julia A. Eastman, b. 2 Apr. 1815, Strong, d. same, 3 Nov. 1887, dau. of the Honorable Samuel and Julia (Hitchcock) Eastman. Mr. Eastman had been a Governor of Maine and a Senator. Philip was an attorney and Judge for many years in Strong, Maine. A full record of this family is found in "Little's," Maine Families, Vol. 3, p. 1415 (1909), with his picture. From "Sprague's Journal of Maine Hist. Vol. II, p. 223 (1924) we find, "Judge Stubbs . . . a committee met at his home, the name "Republican" was taken; their platform, temperance and opposition to introduction of slavery into our territories, on 7 Aug. 1854." He was appointed Postmaster of Strong, 14 Feb. 1842, serving until 30 Sept. 1845. His papers are at the Maine Historical Soc. Archives. Admin. of his est. Franklin Co. Prob. #2329 names sons Philip H. Stubbs ae. 38, George E. Stubbs, ae. 36, and wife Julia Stubbs. Many of the family papers and pictures are owned by his great-grandson, Robert Goff Stubbs, and his grandson Philip D. Stubbs's widow. He made an affidavit stating his mother was

Sarah Morse, apparently because she married (2) Ezra Fuller and died under another name. Philip was a charter member of Blue Mt. Lodge F.&A.M., Philips, Maine. He was Judge of Probate fourteen yrs., he was highly respected.

Children, b. Strong:

i. Emma Julia,[8] b. 7 Dec. 1836, d. 17 Mar. 1861 unm. ae. 24. She graduated from Mt. Holyoke, letters from there to her father. (Maine Hist. Soc. Archives).

176. ii. Philip Henry,[8] b. 7 Apr. 1838.

177. iii. George Eastman,[8] b. 30 Dec. 1839.

94. Thomas Hill[7] Stubbs, (Abner,[6] Abner,[5] Richard[4,3,2,1]) b. c. 1812 (1850 census) Norway, Maine, d. 11 Nov. 1888, bur. Guilford, Maine, m. 1 Jan. 1839 Guilford, (from their div. rec.) Wealthy G. Washburn, b. c. 1815 (1850 census), d. 28 Nov. 1887, ae. 77-3-0 (grst.) dau. of John Washburn. They were div. 5 Aug. 1864 (Piscatiquis Co. Prob. 5:315), children's ages given, and their m. date. They continued to live together, he is called "boarder" in 1870, 1880 censuses. He was a blacksmith, a very lucrative trade in those days of farming and carriages. He is proved to be son of Abner Stubbs and his first wife, Cynthia Hill, dau. of Thomas Hill, Oxford, Maine, and was named for his maternal grandfather. It is possible he was reared by his mother's people, since she died when he was about three years old, and his father remarried that year. The question about his ancestry was solved when a xeroxed copy of the Oxford County Advertiser, 22 May 1896 was sent to the compiler Feb. 1984 by a descendant of Thomas's half-sister Alazander (Stubbs) Andrews. The paper had all the records of Abner's children by his first two wives. This proved my theory that Thomas was Abner's son by a first unknown (then) wife. Thomas's house burned and he escaped in the night with his family.

Children, b. Guilford, Maine:

Horace was an inn-keeper in the 1850 census Portland, Maine. He moved by 1852 to St. John, N. B., where he became a hotel owner. He built Stubbs's Hotel on Prince William St. opposite the court house. Some of his children died in N. B., were sent back to be bur. in the family lot in N. Yarmouth, Maine. Horace was acquainted with Peter Stubbs, Barrister-at-Law and told him that his grandfather Jeremiah Stubbs said the Stubbs family originated in Lancashire England before coming to America. This was the only place name ever mentioned in the compiler's research. She had all the wills of Lancashire searched from 1619-1679 and the Parish records in print. No Richard was found. (Some of the children gleaned from Mormon Archives).

David died when his eldest son was ten years old. He was a river boat captain, carrying logs to Belfast. The Desc. of John Porter, Windsor, Ct., by H. P. Andrews (1893) does not give Hannah's first marriage.

Children, b. Winterport, Maine:

i. James Henry,[8] b. 21 Nov. 1852 (his brother's wife's birthday book), d. 1 June 1936, Andover, Mass., in his 84th year, m. Anna Lydia Hodgdon, b. 29 July 1850 (birthday bk.), d. 1923. James left for Mass. as soon as he was of age. He studied to become a minister (at Andover Sem., fam. rec.) and was a Methodist minister for 50 years, holding pastorates in Newburyport, Somerville, Franklin, Roslindale and other towns in Mass. He was a brilliant man, remembered by the compiler as having wavy, heavy hair, and dark blue eyes. He left his estate to his wife's niece except for a fund for the N.E. Methodist Episcopal Conference for Preachers' endowment. Will, Essex Co. Mass. Prob. Docket #185110, signed 21 May 1936, filed 8 June 1936. His brother Charles is mentioned as an heir. The compiler's grandmother was singing in the choir in James's church, when she met his brother Charles.

219. ii. Charles Edward,[8] b. 24 Aug. 1858.

132. Barnabas Cole[7] Stubbs, (David,[6] James,[5,4] Luke,[3] Richard[2,1]) b. Dec. 1830, (F.R.) Winterport, Maine, d. same, 6 Feb. 1890, ae. 60-10-2, grst., bur. Oak Hill Cem. Winterport, m. 17 June 1852, Hampden, Maine, Dorcas J. Littlefield, b. May 1833, Winterport, d. same, 4 Dec. 1897, ae. 64-7-10, grst., bur. with husb., dau. of Stephen and Dorcas (Cole) Littlefield. Barney, as he was called, and Dorcas were first cousins through their mothers. He was pilot of a fishing boat, in partnership with Capt. Joe Arey. He was remembered as a very witty and comical man. The character, "Stubby the Chimp" in the book "Toby Tyler at the Circus" by James Otis Kaler, and made into a movie by Walt Disney, was named and created after Barney Stubbs, well known to the author. Barney was active in town affairs, chosen for jury duty 11 Apr. 1863. His son Arthur, first cousin to the compiler's grandfather, made a chart of his ancestry going back to his great-grandfather giving the names of persons not in town records who would otherwise have not been known, the children who died young, etc. Barney is found in the 1850 census in his father's family, and in the 1860-1880 census with his family. Barney dropped dead of a heart attack in his boat house. Waldo Co. Deed 231:203, the heirs of Barney Stubbs sell 17 Jan. 1901 to Addie (Stubbs) Smith the land conveyed to Barney Stubbs by Joe Arey 16 July 1853. The heirs named were Anna P. Ware of Hampden, Arthur P. Stubbs, Lynn, Mass.

Children, b. Winterport, Maine:

220. ii. Arthur Percival,[8] b. 23 Dec. 1865.

iii. Anna Perkins,[8] b. 8 Oct. 1870, (dau. rec.), d. 22 Feb. 1931, grst., bur. Locust Grove Cem., Hampden, with husb., m. 15 Apr. 1893, William Howard Ware, b. 1864, d. 1949. Anna was named for her aunt Anna Cole Littlefield, who married Daniel Perkins of Winterport, Maine. Anna grad. from the Seminary in Bucksport, and was a teacher before she married.

133. Stephen Littlefield[7] Stubbs, (David,[6] James,[5] James,[4] Luke,[3] Richard[2,1]) b. 1834 (census), Winterport, Maine, d. same, 20 Dec. 1902, m. 1 Jan. 1869, Bangor, Maine, Clementine F. Tyler, b. 1838, Deer Isle, d. Winterport, 20 Dec. 1912, ae. 74-5-12, dau. of Benjamin and Deborah (Webster) Tyler. Stephen was the youngest son and the last to own the land settled by his grandfather James Stubbs in 1794. He purchased his father's land and bldgs. in 1876 and sold them, 8 Oct. 1890 (except the 11 acres sold by his father to Joseph Stubbs, 5 May 1858). He lived on Commercial Street and had a carriage painting business. His son John was in Denver, Col. when he died and John never had a stone placed on his parents' graves. Stephen was named for his mother's sister Dorcas (Cole) Littlefield's husband, Stephen Littlefield. A Cole family living in Stephen's house in 1969 entertained the compiler, a grand niece of Stephen.

Children, b. Winterport, Maine:

i. Frederick,[8] b. c. 1871, d. bef. 1880 census (Chart of Arthur P. Stubbs, nephew of Stephen).

ii. John Crowell,[8] b. 6 Apr. 1874, alive in the 1913 Denver, Colo. City Directory, m. Mary B. ——, bef. 1902. She was alive, listed as "widow" from 1916 to 1926, when her name disappeared from the directories. John was in Denver as early as 1899, when he was secretary to "Stubbs and Crowell" a dry goods store. He is listed in the 1902 SAR Register as being a member of the Sons of the American Rev. through his mother's Tyler ancestry. Waldo Co. deeds, 274:95, Clementine F. Stubbs, widow of Stephen Stubbs of Winterport, John C. Stubbs and wife Mary B. Stubbs of Denver Colo., sold land in 1904 purchased by Stephen L. Stubbs, 9 Oct. 1890 from Elisha C. Arey. No known children.

134. Lewis[7] Stubbs, (Joseph,[6] Benjamin, James,[4] Luke,[3] Richard[2,1]) b. c. 1821, Winterport, Maine, d. neither date nor place known, no grst., m. 12 July 1846, Orrington, Maine, Eliza Snow, b. 1 Apr. 1824, Hampden, Maine, d. 15 Mar. 1906, ae. 82-11-17, Bangor, Maine (grst.), bur. Locust Grove Cem., Hampden, Maine, dau. of Capt. William and Delia A. (Swett) Snow, of Hampden. In the 1850 census Eliza was in the fam. of Isaac Doane (her step-father), her husband out to sea. (Penobscot Deeds 285, p. 476, Eliza Stubbs and Delia Doane, to Nathan Baker, of Hampden, land and bldgs. on county road leading to Frankfort, Delia Doane, relinquishes dower, as widow of William Snow, late dec'd of Hampden, signed 14 June 1853. Lewis was a sea capt. and remembered by his brother Joseph's wife, Sarah Wheelden (Stubbs) Stubbs's nephew, Arthur Stubbs (1865-1932) of Lynn, Mass., in correspondence owned by his dau. Brenda Stubbs MacEachin (xeroxed copy of letter to compiler 1970). Eliza was a widow living in Bangor during her last years. Lewis admin. his father's est. 1841, and was alive in the sale of his father's est. 1861, though not found in any census. It was not unusual for a sea capt. to be in the census records in the town in which he was temporarily residing, or based, while at sea. Eliza is bur. in her father's lot, and Lewis could be bur. there with no grst.

d. 25 Aug. 1880, Marblehead, Mass., dau. of Richard and Mary B. (Wentworth) Hoben of Orrington, m. (2) 14 Mar. 1882, Boston, Mass., Mary Ada Howe, b. 1854, d. 2 July 1887, Boston, Mass., ae. 33, dau. of William R. and Almira (Clements) Howe. Mary Ada was a half-sister of Charles S. Howe, who was President of several colleges. William inherited his father's schooner and was a Capt. of the ship "Long Wharf" 1866, half owner with Samuel Thayer, for about ten years. His uncle, Capt. Jabez S. Stubbs, a wealthy part-owner of ships, sailed to many parts of the world. While in China a Chinese artist painted his ship the "Art Union," registered in Boston in 1850. This ship's painting, hanging in his uncle's house, could very well have been the inspiration for William's leaving the sea to pursue a career in Boston of painting ships. His paintings are in every major marine museum in America and in the Smithsonian Institution. Many articles are being written about him as his work becomes more in demand. An article about him by the compiler in "Maine Life," Nov. 1979, was the first to explore his ancestry and information not otherwise known, including the probable influence of his uncle's ship painting. He and his first wife separated. She and her daughter Maud went to Marblehead, Mass., where they lived with her sister. William went to Boston and became a busy artist. After his first wife died, he married again. His second wife died leaving him with a two-year old daughter whom he boarded with friends in S. Orrington, Maine. He visited her when he could. He developed severe melancholia and spent his last fourteen years in a mental hospital. He is bur. in Vine Lake Cem., Medford, Mass., no grst.

Evergreen Cem., Victoria, Tex., m. Caroline Rosenburg, b. Germany. The area where he lived was known as Stubbs Community, with Stubbs School, Stubbs Church and Stubbs Road. He was a rancher. It is not known for certain if Cornelius is Washington's son. A tradition in the family is that he was a son of Eliza's before she married Washington. A deed Washington received in 1837, he turned in toward larger acreage in 1841, "being now a married man." He was treated like a son and received the personal papers of his father, always called "brother" by members of the family. He lived five miles south of Victoria Texas. His house burned and the papers were lost. (Records from Flavia (Stubbs) Wallace-Fleishman, and Fred Williams, both of Baytown, Tex.).

(2) 3 June 1944, Morris Fleishman, no children by 2nd husb., bur. Tilton Cem. Flavia was the historian of the desc. of Washington Stubbs, her grandfather, trying for over 20 years to find his parents in Bucksport, Maine. Her aunt had hold her about Capt. Jabez Stubbs, Washington's brother, who had wanted to adopt a dau. of Washington, also, that Washington was from Bucksport, Maine. Long correspondence with the compiler who furnished her with her ancestry in 1970, to her great joy. A lovely lady, Flavia wrote a history of West Chambers Co., Texas, titled "Old River Country," pub. 1976, filled with pictures and genealogical information of early settlers. She held a family reunion for the descendants of Washington Stubbs and his brother Franklin Stubbs, attended by the compiler in Nov. 1979. Washington and Franklin Stubbs were sons of the compiler's great-great-great-grandfather, James Stubbs's youngest brother, Reuben Stubbs.

Her great-great-grandfather David Stubbs was first cousin and surely knew them. The reunion was joyful and emotional. Three of Washington Stubbs's grandchildren attended: Flavia (Stubbs) Wallace-Fleishman, Laura Daisey (Stubbs) Williams and Don Quioxte Stubbs, Franklin Stubbs's grandson, Allen Keith Stubbs, Allen's daughter, Elizabeth (Stubbs) Warren, Mary (Stubbs) Widmar, and Orene (Freeman) Stubbs, Allen's wife.

Fannin Co., Tex., d. 22 Mar. 1974, ae. 80, bur., Fairfield, Cal., m. 22 Oct. 1916, Sulphur Springs, Tex., Artie Lucy Merrell, b. 27 Aug. 1899, d. 26 Dec. 1961, Fairfield, Cal., dau. of Ebenezer Frost and Frances Elizabeth (Patterson) Merrell, of Tenn. and Tex. John lived and farmed near Sulphur Springs until 1944, when he moved to Cal. He worked as a civilian at the Travis Air-Force Base throughout the war. He retired in 1962, living in Fairfield, Cal. for years. He was a tall thin man, a trait that ran in this family. His death triggered his daughter Mary's quest for his ancestry. In the course of her correspondence, she was sent the compiler's address by a Stubbs family (not related) in Colo., received by that family ten years earlier. A long correspondence and quest for all of her grandfather's descendants have brought forth the records in this book. Until her letter the compiler only knew her great-grandfather Franklin's family, in Washington Par., La. This family was reared as Methodists.

Ira lived in 1860 in Bangor, Maine, though he is listed as boarder in 1859 city directory in Boston, Mass. He moved to Brookline, Mass. by 1862. Ira Stubbs and the Kendrick brothers received notice 8 Sept. 1880 concerning the sewer to be laid out in Brookline. His estate Probate #3660 Plymouth Co., Mass., names his son-in-law, Moses Kendrick representative, and mentions his dau. Jennie A. Kendrick, of Brookline and Ida N. Stubbs of Carver, Mass. Ira was a carpenter. Samuel seems the most likely person to be his father from the census records. For the moment he has to be listed as unplaced.

Children, first two b. Bangor, Maine:

i. Martha J.,[7] b. 17 Mar. 1857 (also noted in Mass. V.R.).
ii. Clarence M.,[7] b. 1860, d. 21 Oct. 1865, Brookline, Mass., ae. 5-5-1.
